30 years of broad experience culminating in a strategic thinker capable of visualizing and reading geopolitical climates and how it can potentially shape the future. A Graduate of the United States Army War College, trained to discern and analyze economic, social and political events that could have strategic implications on U.S. regional security. An experienced Army Officer who can analyze and understand complex issues and develop comprehensive solutions. A highly adaptable problem solver with extensive experience with Strategic planning, human capital management and logistical operations.

Currently serves as the Chief of Joint Staff for the Guam National Guard. Interested in applying focused skills and experience in areas that have nexus on military arena. Top Secret-Sensitive Compartmentalize Information Security Clearance.

Experience

2015-04 - present

Chief Of Joint Staff (Colonel)

Guam National Guard

Provides synthesis and synergy between the Adjutant General and his direct reporting team of principal staff members. Responsible for coordination and facilitation across staff domains and areas of responsibilities to ensure synchronized operations and campaigns resulting in successful achievement of organizational goals and objectives during both peacetime and wartime environments. Serves as the continuity and liaison of Leader intent and staff action.

2013-11 - 2015-03

Director of Personnel and Human Resources

GUARNG Element, Guam Army National Guard

Served as the Principal (G1 Colonel) for the Adjutant General on all matters pertaining to Personnel functions and activities. Maintained oversight and accountability of 1500 Soldiers, Airmen, Technicians, State employees and Contractors at any given time. Responsible for the accurate recording and reporting of the status of the Human Capital available to sustain organizational objectives and goals. Directly responsible for tracking the daily availability of the force to carry out Commander's intent and tasks. Maintained an overall rating for personnel accountability of 98% during the rating period.

2013-11 - 2015-03

Commander, Troop Command

Guam Army National Guard

Served as the Senior Leader (Colonel) of a Multifaceted Unit comprised of seven (7) Subordinate Units. Total personnel assigned to the unit totaled 300+. The composition and capabilities of the Command included an Engineers, a Network Communications Company, an Aviation Medevac Unit, a Contracting Team, a Marching Band, a Service Support Company and a Troop Command Headquarters.

The primary mission of the Troop Command was to provide service support capabilities to an Infantry maneuver unit. The 105th Troop Command was an integral force multiplier that extended the Adjutant General's reach during numerous Domestic Operations. Having such diverse capabilities ensured that the Organization can accomplish its state mission with minimal request for outside support.

As the Commander of the Unit, provided guidance, intent and mission clarity to subordinate leaders towards mission success. Such clarity and synchronization is necessary to achieve any level of organizational success.

2012-02 - 2013-11 Deputy, Personnel and Human Resources

GUARNG Element, Guam Army National Guard

Served as the Deputy Director (LTC) to the Principal. Responsible for the day to day operations of the Human Resources Directorate. Answerable to the Director on all matters pertaining to the status of the Human Capital of the organization. Worked closely with other Directorates to ensure that personnel operations supported the overall objectives of the Command.

2009-06 - 2012-01 Commander, Recruiting and Retention

Guam Army National Guard

Responsible (as a LTC) for a 20 man-team of highly trained Soldiers whose sole job in the organization was to ensure the influx and maintain a slow attrition of the force. The Recruiting Command was directly responsible for the acquisition of new Soldiers into the organization. Without this flow of personnel, the organization would not be regenerating or sustainable to conduct any of its assigned mission sets. Additionally, the Retention Command was directly responsible for ensuring the Soldiers brought into the force remain in the organization for a foreseeable length of time so that a return of investment of expenditure, to train the Soldier, can be realized. During this rating period the unit was able to achieve the highest Recruiting and Retention rate as compared to statistics prior and after this Command.

2008-10 - 2009-05 Director of Information Management

GUARNG Element, Guam Army National Guard

Serves as the Principal (Major) to the Adjutant General on all mattes pertaining to Information Management. Responsible for the seamless operations of all Information Technology and related services. Monitors, maintains and conducts oversight surveillance of the network in an effort to support the fulltime force of 250 computers. During drill periods, this requirement increases to approximately 1500 depending on the usage of the systems available and the connectivity to support. Responsible for the security of the network and the constant and vigilant monitoring of cyber threats that seek to penetrate the network.

Supports the frequent updates and patches of data necessary to sustain the reliability and robustness of the system. Ensures that all personnel accessing the network are cognizant of the threats to the enterprise and that all are up to date on required training.

2006-12 - 2008-05 Senior Liaison, Future Operations Planner

Combined Joint Task Force, Horn of Africa

Staff Planner (as a Major) for the CJTF-HOA-J3 Operations Director. Primarily responsible for planning future operational missions focused on building lasting relations with the indigenous people of Djibouti, Africa. Organized contingency plans for units aimed at building capacity into the livelihood of the local populations. Planned and briefed approximately 140 regional plans that executed the establishment of much needed water wells, construction of schools, and training for a more sustainable future. Spent a year in theater supporting Operation Enduring Freedom (OEF) Lines of Operations aimed at winning the Hearts and Minds of the indigenous so that they do not turn to Terrorism as the answer to their survival.

2005-12 - 2006-10 State Family Program Director (SFPD) (Major)

GUARNG Element, Guam Army National Guard

Dual Hatted assignment as the State Family Program Director for the Command. Responsible for addressing all matters related to Family care, welfare and well-being. Held quarterly meetings for all family members to inform them of different aspects of Military life. This included deployment cycles, pay issues, resiliency training and other pertinent concerns they may have. Additionally, the SFPD was directly involved in ensuring that families of Soldiers were registered into the database of record for tracking issues they may report.

Central to the Soldiers performance was knowing that when he/she is deployed, the family is taken care of and their specific needs are addressed during their absence. This was the primary responsibility of the SFPD.

2004-07 - 2005-09 Commander, Headquarters Detachment

Guam Territorial Command

Served as the Commander (Captain) for the Headquarters Element of the Territorial Command and its associated responsibilities. The Headquarters operates as the administrative control of the unit and monitors progress and status of Soldier regulatory requirements. Responsible for the medical, logistical, operational and personnel readiness of approximately 150 Soldiers assigned to the unit. The major mission of the unit is to provide service support for other Major Commands (MACOMs) in the execution of their primary federal and local mission sets.

1999-08 - 2002-05 Communications Officer

1-294th Infantry Regiment

Assigned as the Communications Officer (Captain) for a Tactical units working with secure radio technology. responsible for the training, welfare and morale of 38 Soldiers. Main responsibility was to set up tactical communications for an Infantry Battalion that was highly mobile and spread out throughout the area of operations. The unit always maintained a high level of readiness due to the importance of communications on the battle space and provided the ability for each Commander to Control elements under his Command. Worked with Single Channel Ground to Air Radio Systems (SINCGARS) and other frequency managed systems.

1996-08 - 1999-08 Commander, Service Detachment

Guam Territorial Command

Served as the Commander (Captain) of a Service Detachment comprised of a Transportation section and a Communications section. Provided both these service needs to the Command. As the Commander I was directly responsible for the movement and communications requirements of the Command during major field exercises and Annual Training. This was a vital need during major storms or calamities that struck the island.

1991-11 - 1992-07 Company Executive Officer

C Co, 29th SIG, FT Lewis, Washington

Served as the Executive Officer for a Signal Company capable of Single Channel, Multi-Channel, and Satellite Communications. Supported a Communications Battalion that provided uninterrupted radio communications for the forces assigned to Fort Lewis, Washington. Supported Team Spirit, a large scale multi-component exercise held in South Korea.

1989-05 - 1991-05 Signal Platoon Leader

29th Signal Battalion, FT Lewis, WA

Served as a Platoon Leader in a Signal Battalion assigned to Fort Lewis, Washington. Responsible for the training, welfare and morale of 42 Soldiers assigned to the platoon.

2000-12 - 1970-01 Secondary School Administrator

Inarajan MS, Guam Dept of Education

Served as the school Principal for a Middle school comprising of 800 students between the ages of 11-14. Managed a faculty of 60 teachers and 28 support staff
