JOINT LETTER

From: RDML Shoshana Chatfield, Commander, Joint Region Marianas
Lynda Bordallo Aguon, Guam State Historic Preservation Officer

To: Concurring Party

Subj: RENEWED INVITATION TO CONCURRING PARTIES TO SIGN THE 2011 PROGRAMMATIC AGREEMENT FOR THE MILITARY RELOCATION

1. The Department of the Navy (DON) and Guam State Historic Preservation Office (Guam SHPO) extend a renewed invitation to formally concur with the 2011 Programmatic Agreement among the Department of Defense, the Advisory Council on Historic Preservation, the Guam State Historic Preservation Officer, and the CNMI State Historic Preservation Officer Regarding the Military Relocation to the Islands of Guam and Tinian (2011 PA). As a representative of a Guam-based group or individual whose stated interest is dedication to the protection of natural and cultural resources, you have requested to become a Consulting Party on the 2011 Programmatic Agreement. Note that "Consulting Party" refers to Signatories, Invited Signatories, Concurring Parties, and the general public, all of whom have an opportunity to comment on actions taken under the 2011 PA. Stipulation I.C.3 of the 2011 PA states, "DoD may invite additional organizations and individuals to become Concurring Parties in the future, based on expression of interest and involvement with historic preservation issues."

2. To those who were party to the original 2011 PA development, your input contributed to completion of this historic agreement. With the ongoing review of the revised Guam Military Relocation, we renew our previous invitation to you to consider signing the 2011 PA as a Concurring Party.

3. Electing to sign the 2011 PA now as a Concurring Party means concurrence with the process, but not necessarily any specific outcome of supplemental consultations. As listed in Stipulation I.C.3 of the 2011 PA, this would include the identification, evaluation, and treatment of historic properties within the project areas associated with the action, as well as invitations to participate in annual workshops, to participate in resolving objections, and to advise the Signatories. Concurring Party support or opposition to any specific proposal will have equal consideration as feedback received from the general public and other Concurring Parties.

4. We have attached a signature page modeled after those in the 2011 PA (Attachment A). If you would like to join the agreement, please sign and return the original to Ronnie Rogers, Marine Corps Activity Guam (MCAG) Cultural Resources Specialist. He can be reached at (671) 355-3230, or ronnie.rogers@fe.navy.mil to schedule a time and place to return your signed letter.

5. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Mr. John Salas, who may be reached via phone at (671) 339-4420, or via e-mail at john.f.salas@fe.navy.mil, or Ms. Lynda B. Aguon, at (671) 475-6337/6294 or via e-mail at lynda.aguon@dpr.guam.gov.
