Dear Mr. Topasna:

At this time, I would like to extend sincerest thanks to you for your unselfish support and assistance during the 1983 Youth Month activities.

It is realized that although you may have had plans for your free time, you still took the time to provide us with much needed assistance. To us, this was an indication that you were not only interested in our youths but that you also had much concern for the successful implementation of the various events.

I am sure that your services were not only appreciated by the coordinating staff of the Department of Youth Affairs and the Central Planning Committee but most especially by the youths who were involved in the various activities.

Again, thank you very much and we look forward to your continued support and assistance.

Dear Nominee:

Editorial work will soon begin on the 1974 edition of OUTSTANDING YOUNG MEN OF AMERICA, but we have not as yet received your biographical information. We have enclosed an additional biographical questionnaire. Please complete and sign it, and return it to us -- today if possible.

You are one of a select number of men from your state who -- based upon your biographical data and our criteria -- will appear in this Awards Volume. This nationally respected annual publication recognizes men between the ages of 21 and 35 who have distinguished themselves by their civic and professional achievements. Upon your acceptance into the program, a personal Award Certificate, suitable for framing, will be sent to you.

As an Outstanding Young Man, your full biography and record of achievements will be presented along with those of your fellow award winners, in the 1974 edition of OUTSTANDING YOUNG MEN OF AMERICA.

Because most men who receive this honor wish to have a copy of this handsome volume, I have made a tentative reservation in your name for the 1974 edition. Please advise me when you return your Reservation Card if additional copies are desired, since only those volumes reserved in advance will be printed.

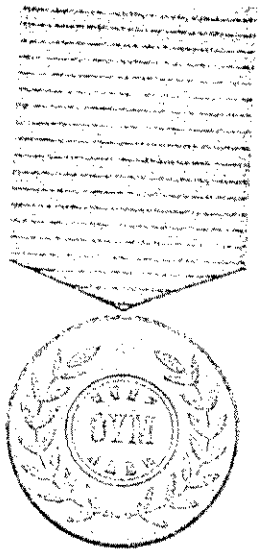

Again, congratulations on behalf of our entire Board of Advisors. You can take great pride in the dedication and service that have brought you this special recognition.

MANUEL F. L. GUERRERO
GOVERNOR

TERRITORY OF GUAM
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
AGAÑA, GUAM
U. S. A.

Dear Ramon:

As my tenure as Governor comes to an end, I want you to know how deeply grateful I am for your dedication and loyalty in the service of the Territory.

The job of moving forward has been difficult and often times, under adverse conditions, our lot has not been easy.

The many sacrifices and hard work that you have contributed toward the progress of our island, your unflinching determination and support of the programs to better our living conditions and the graceful manner in which you, as a public servant, have counteracted the ridicule and criticisms leveled at you, have been a tower of strength basic in our form of government.

For all that you are, I salute you. Truly you are a source of inspiration and pride to me.

I hope to see you personally and talk with you in the future.

Most sincerely,

MANUEL F. L. GUERRERO
