Aftershocks rattle survivors after Philippine quake kills 8

SURIGAO (AP) – Philippine officials on Sunday warned survivors of a powerful earthquake that left at least eight people dead in the country's south to ensure their homes and buildings are sturdy enough before venturing back amid continuing aftershocks.

A strong aftershock alarmed residents, some of whom screamed in fear, while waiting for President Rodrigo Duterte to arrive to console earthquake survivors gathered in a gymnasium in the hard-hit capital of Surigao del Norte province.

The magnitude 6.7 quake struck late Friday, killing at least eight people, injuring more than 200 and damaging the main provincial airport and about 1,000 houses in Surigao, officials said. Some residents said the shaking was so strong they could not stand up to rush out of their houses.

SURVIVORS: Patients spend the night outside a hospital after abandoning their rooms following a powerful earthquake that rocked Surigao city, Surigao del Norte province in the southern Philippines, Saturday. AP

Officials appealed for volunteer engineers to help check the stability of damaged schools, hospitals, malls, hotels and other buildings, especially in the provincial capital of Surigao city, which has been placed under a state of calamity to ensure a rapid release of emergency funds and prevent food hoarding. Power was restored Sunday in some parts of the city.

New nuclear-capable missile test a success, North Korea says

(Reuters) – North Korea said on Monday it had successfully test-fired a new type of medium- to long-range ballistic missile a day earlier, claiming further advancement in a weapons program it is pursuing in violation of United Nations resolutions.

North Korea fired the ballistic missile on a high arc into the sea early on Sunday, the first test of U.S. President Donald Trump's vow to get tough on an isolated regime that tested nuclear devices and ballistic missiles last year at an unprecedented rate.

The North's state-run KCNA news agency said leader Kim Jong Un supervised the test of the Pukguksong-2, a new type of strategic weapon capable of carrying a nuclear warhead.

Pence pledges US commitment to EU on last European tour stop

BRUSSELS – Vice President Mike Pence said the U.S. commitment to the European Union remains strong and the new administration would seek ways to bolster the relationship, just a month after Donald Trump questioned the bloc's viability and said NATO was "obsolete."

"It is my privilege on behalf of President Trump to express the strong commitment of the United States to continued cooperation and partnership," Pence said Monday in Brussels. "Whatever our differences, our two continents share the same heritage, the same values and above all the same purpose – to promote peace and prosperity through freedom, democracy and the rule of law."

On the final day of his first trip overseas since taking office, Pence sought to allay concern that the trans-Atlantic partnership was beginning to fray by giving reassurances to European Council President Donald Tusk, European Commission President Jean-Claude Juncker and the EU's foreign affairs chief Federica Mogherini. Pence's trip capped Secretary of State Rex Tillerson and Secretary of Defense James Mattis's own international debuts in Europe as the administration tries to set its foreign policy agenda.

Tusk, standing next to Pence after their meeting at the European Council, told reporters that the two leaders did not try to paper over their differences. "The idea of NATO is not obsolete, just like the values that lay at its foundation are not obsolete," Tusk said.

Norway pledges $10 million to counter Trump's global anti-abortion move

(Reuters) – Norway has joined an international initiative to raise millions of dollars to replace shortfalls left by U.S. President Donald Trump's ban on U.S.-funded groups worldwide providing information on abortion.

In January, the Netherlands started a global fund to help women access abortion services, saying Trump's "global gag rule" meant a funding gap of $600 million over the next four years, and has pledged $10 million to the initiative to replace that.

Sweden, Denmark, Belgium, Luxembourg, Finland, Canada and Cape Verde have all also lent their support.

"The government is increasing its support for family planning and safe abortion by 85 million Norwegian crowns ($10 million) compared with 2016," Prime Minister Erna Solberg said.

"At a time when this agenda has come under pressure, a joint effort is particularly important," he said in a statement.

Last month, Trump reinstated a policy requiring overseas organizations that receive U.S. family-planning funds to certify they do not perform abortions or provide abortion advice as a method of family planning.
