PLANNER I – SOCIO ECONOMICS DIVISION: BUREAU OF STATISTICS AND PLANS / SEPTEMBER 2015 – PRESENT

Byrne JAG Multi Year Strategic Plan

Participate in the development, research and compilation of relevant information of Guam's Drug and Violent Crime problems in order to prepare sections for inclusion in the multi-year strategic planning for the Edward Byrne JAG Programs.

Identify charts, tables, and graphs used to best portray data that prepares graphic presentation and narrative reports.

- Develop semi-annual progress reports, annual performance narrative reports, close out reports, and property inventory to assist sub grantees in submitting their perspective reports in a timely manner.
- Prepare documents for Guam State Clearinghouse for review in federal grant aid applications and state plans.
- Monitor grant files for documents required and requested for audit purposes.
- Maintain log entries of quarterly progress and financial reports.
- Provide planning information to requesting officials and the public.
- Assisting in preparing MOU for both Coral Reef Initiatives and the Edward Byrne Projects.
- Requested proposals for supplies from vendors.
- Organize trainings and courses for grant management under the federal and local jurisdictions.
- Handled reprogramming of funds under the grants management and plans.
- Assist the Senior Planners in verifying and validating the data entered based on the subgrantee progress reports.
- Obtain and maintain data from subgrantee following sources of community and criminal justice system trends.

Grants Management

Ensure sub grantee EEOP are updated annually, maintained on file and in compliance with the Office of Civil Rights Equal Employment Opportunity Plan. Ensure sub grantee have a Limited English Proficient Plan (LEP) in place. Ensure sub grantee submits copies of any adverse findings of discrimination against their organization to the Office of Civil Rights for review.

Assist the Senior Planners in reviewing and preparing reprogramming requests submission by sub grantees. Ensure the request is consistent with the project proposal.

Assist the Senior Planners in the development and preparation of Guam's Strategy for Drug Control, Violence Prevention, and System Improvement to the Bureau of Justice Assistance concerning the nature and extent of Guam's drug related crime to include all types of serious and violent crimes, as well as to make serious and systematic efforts to improve the infrastructure of Guam's Criminal Justice System to deal with crime; identifying and establishing the major priorities and program responses to address Guam's Criminal Justice System problems; and develops Guam's Evaluation Plan which describes the mechanisms and procedures to be used to assess the impact of the strategy on the drug and violent crime problems in Guam, and to evaluate Byrne funded programs planned to implement the strategy.

Assist the Senior Planners in the collection and analyses of crime data from Guam's local and federal criminal justice agencies and the Bureau's resource agencies to determine and address Guam's drug and violent crime problems in the Guam's Drug Control Strategy by interpreting the data, as well as to provide information to the government leaders and the US Department of Justice. Utilize the collected statistical data to develop appropriate charts, tables and graphs to best portray Guam's drug and violent crime problem in the Guam's Drug Control Strategy.

Assist Senior Planners in preparation of the detail budget worksheet and budget narrative outlining how JAG administrative funds will be used to support the program.

Update the automated Byrne JAG grant electronic file to keep track of the sub grantee submission of programmatic and financial reports. Log in all progress reports and financial reports. Send out reminder notices of report due dates. Ensure programmatic and financial reports that have not been submitted are turned in.

Monitor the quality of the programmatic activities by reviewing sub grantee progress reports.

Attend sub grantee meetings and provide technical support to the senior planners.

Update the FY 2015 Byrne JAG Project Request for Proposal. Assist the senior planners in reviewing the request for proposals to ensure that the proposals fall within the authorized and approved program areas under the grant for funding consideration. Assist the senior planner in preparing the budget spreadsheet of projects that have been submitted for funding to include the sub grant budget items and funding request, the formulation of the recommendation and non - recommendation of budget items to fund, and projects to fund and not to fund; and collaborate with the criminal justice entities and the Governor's Federal Program's Office to ensure there is no duplication of funding.

Criminal Justice Update

Establish, consult and maintain contacts with appropriate representatives from Government of Guam's criminal justice agencies, federal local law enforcement officials, legislature, U.S. Department of Justice officials, and states receiving funds from the Edward Byrne Justice Assistance Grant Program in order to identify and stay abreast of criminal justice issues that may have a potential importance to the Island; and to collect descriptive and analytical data, as well as staying abreast of developments and changes in the federal laws, regulations and congressional bills that will impact the Byrne JAG Fund.

Programmatic Evaluation

Assist the senior planner in conducting annual programmatic evaluations of the JAG sub grantees to monitor the quality of the programmatic activities and financial expenditures to determine if the project is progressing and is achieving its intended results; to identify and disseminate information about projects of proven effectiveness so that this project can be replicated locally or nationally.

Technical Reviews

Guam State Clearinghouse Review - Thoroughly assess criminal justice federal grant in aid applications and State Plans, amendments and other federal commitments to ensure consistency with territorial policies, goals, and objectives; adherence with applicable federal and local statutes, guidelines, and regulations pertaining to the grant.

Prepare written comments and make recommendations on whether the application should be approved, disapproved or conditionally approved by the Guam State Clearinghouse by the due date. Conduct research and analysis, and collect data, if necessary, in order to evaluate program effectiveness in addressing a territorial need; impact upon the territory' socio-economic development; weakness or problems that may arise through program implementation. Consult and alert applicant agencies with findings or anticipated problems, making all attempts to assist in resolving the problem through recommended adjustments, development and improvement in program implementation.
