IV. OLD BUSINESS

A. Governor's Executive Order Chamorro Village: Transition Update Status

DCA President J. Sablan reported that the Governor signed the Executive Order on February 14, 2017. The Memorandum of Agreement entails that the management and administration of the Chamorro Village shall be under the authority of GEDA. DCA President J. Sablan explained that the current issue with the MOA is personnel matters. He stated that GEDA, an autonomous agency, employs most non-classified employees, which may be a problem considering the Chamorro Village staff are all classified employees. During initial meetings with GEDA, DCA President J. Sablan recalled that GEDA was going to look into the personnel matters within Department of Administration. DCA's role was to ensure that the financials were up to date and to complete the audit, which was done so on May 5th. DCA President J. Sablan shared that the Public Auditor commented on how well the Department resolved the debt of Chamorro Village from October 1, 2016 to current. The Public Auditor suggested that right before the transfer, DCA provide a financial of the current standings directly to GEDA.

Unfortunately, DCA President J. Sablan was unable to meet with some of GEDA's management to discuss the transfer as they were busy with the Guam Micronesian Island Fair; however, Mr. J. Sablan mentioned that he informed them that DCA has completed the audit. At this time, DCA President J. Sablan stated that he is still unsure of the status of the Chamorro Village Classified employees.

DCA President J. Sablan shared that some of the options for the five Chamorro Village employees include transferring to another Government Agency or transferring to GEDA. Member V. Meno asked if some of the employees have the option of staying under DCA. DCA President J. Sablan replied that it is dependent on their current position and if the Department has the specific positions available on the staffing pattern. He shared that only one Chamorro Village employee has expressed interest in transferring back to DCA as she originally started at there. However, it is subject to GEDA signing the employees GG-1 over to DCA.

Member V. Meno expressed that he feels that DCA should take the initiative of helping the four other employees at Chamorro Village in finding another employer within GovGuam. He is also concerned that because the Executive Order is only valid until the next Administration, the Chamorro Village will then be transferred back to DCA. Mr. Meno requested that DCA Management and Board of Trustees work diligently to assist the Chamorro Village employees in keeping their current status as a Classified Employee. DCA President J. Sablan added that this is the job of the Department of Administration to properly place them in a position or to find something equivalent. Member V. Meno requested for a timeline to ensure that the employees are not out of a job. DCA President J. Sablan answered that he is not in the legal position to make that determination. He instead suggested that DCA could assist by supporting the fact that GEDA should give the employees their options.

Member V. Meno expressed, coming from the Board of Trustees, that GEDA needs to ensure that they assist the employees by giving them the option of moving to GEDA or finding them another position within the Government.

B. Guam Museum Update

DCA President J. Sablan turned the floor over to the Galaide Group's Chief Financial Officer, Mark Umagat.

M. Umagat reported that in February 2017 the Museum was closed to the public due to the transition of the current changing exhibit, Chamorro Yu'. The Guam Museum Foundation Office was also relocated to another area.

In addition, the Museum launched a 6-week pilot project where SEARCH, an archaeological company came in to assist with the Collections Management at the DNA Building. M. Umagat also acknowledged the DCA Guam Museum staff for their assistance. He stated that the ultimate goal is to bring all the artifacts from the DNA Building to the Guam Museum. Mark stated that the pilot program was mainly to gauge how much effort it would take to properly document all the artifacts. He expects the full draft to be completed by mid July for review.

In March, the completion of the permanent exhibit transferred to DCA from GEDA. DCA President J. Sablan noted that it was "ok'd" by GEDA's legal department. M. Umagat from Galiade Group expects to send all the files for the Permanent Exhibit to the DCA for review by the end of the week. He noted that DCA President has already reviewed most of the layouts.

Vice-Chair L. Iritate mentioned that the previous contractor, Barry Howard, asked his organization to produce some music. He asked whom he would send the music to since B. Howard is no longer in contract with the Museum. M. Umagat replied that the Museum staff, including himself, would be the point of contact moving forward. DCA President J. Sablan intervened by stating that it should be given to DCA and DCA should be the point of contact.

DCA President J. Sablan added that the contract between GEDA and Barry Howard and Andy Cristobal expired on March 31, 2017. However, GEDA requested for the both of them to extend their contract and to submit their proposals for the extension costs. DCA President J. Sablan was shocked with the amount they requested. He added that they also came up with a revised opening date for the Museum, which came up to February or March 2018. DCA President J. Sablan shared that the Governor was not in agreement with the delayed opening date and feels that the Museum should open as soon as possible with no additional delays. The Museum's opening date is still slated for this year.

DCA President J. Sablan shared one of the reasons they were comfortable with DCA taking over is because a provision in the contract between DCA and the Museum operators states that Galaide can do additional services from time to time of what DCA wants them to do. DCA President J. Sablan expressed that he is very confident that they can work with Galaide to complete the project in time to open the Museum in October or November this year.

DCA President J. Sablan reiterated that the technical review of all the texts have been completed as well as the translations. It will then go to the fabricators, Del Phi, in San Francisco. He expressed that he is very confident that they are moving ahead. Moving forward, Department of Chamorro Affairs has contracted Galaide Group, within their additional services as stated in their contract to complete the project. However, they decided to keep Barry Howard's original design because of the millions of dollars that was already spent.

Vice-Chair L. Iriarte asked for clarification regarding the music that was requested from Barry Howard. He wanted to know if an area for the audio recording was already identified. DCA President J. Sablan stated that the cultural technical review committee more than likely has identified an area and requested that Vice-Chair L. Iriarte provide him with the file so that he could forward it to the committee.

In addition, M. Umagat added that the audiovisual media is ongoing. They are working with Cara Flores-Mays who was the original contact Barry Howard was working with.

M. Umagat reported on the revenues for March 2017. He stated that they collected $4,576.00 dollars in admissions revenue alone. A big portion was from general admissions. Also, they found that 1,100 visitors were primarily Chamorro. One of the Board of Trustees recommended that they look into producing a survey. M. Umagat replied that it is in their plan of action to conduct a survey once the Permanent Exhibit is completed and ready for viewing.

M. Umagat shared that the Korean market has been very strong on a daily basis. A tour guide has been bringing them into the Museum in small groups. In April, Sanko started bringing in groups of Japanese tourists. M. Umagat announced that according to Cliff Guzman, JTB would also be packaging the Museum in their tours this summer.

DCA President J. Sablan asked Mr. Umagat to go over event sales including rental of the facility, café sales, retail sales for the months of February and March 2017.

The event sales for the month of March 2017 is $1,270.00 as opposed to $1,066.00 in February. M. Umagat shared that he's been noticing that the events have been building up now that more people are aware that there have been many events being held at the Museum. The Museum is booked practically every day with multiple events scheduled within the same day. DCA President J. Sablan asked if the Museum is charging for all events. M. Umagat replied that they are charging for all events at the rates that were approved by the DCA Board of Trustees, with the exception of some Government events.

Vice-Chair L. Iriarte shared that he attended an event held on the second floor of the Museum which was a great turnout. M. Umagat added that the weather this time of year is really good especially if you want to hold events in the outdoor facility upstairs.

Member V. Meno asked if there are any attachments that includes the rates for the different areas in the facility. M. Umagat replied that there isn't any included in the attachments. DCA President J. Sablan added that the rates were approved by the BOT in a previous meeting. He then mentioned that he only recalls approving two different fees for daytime and evening events and not for the different spaces within the Museum. He requested for a copy of all the rates. M. Umagat shared that there will be some revisions to the current rates as they are noticing some areas should be charged more due to power consumption.

M. Umagat clarified that the Guam Museum only charges for the space rental and not for events management. If the renter does request for staff, the Museum has that option for an additional charge. Also, they may request that the Museum gallery stay open in the evening during their events. In this case the renter has an option of paying up front or the individuals can pay individually if they want to see the exhibit. In addition, some areas such as the theater, always has a docent present to operate the equipment.

Vice-Chair L. Iriarte asked if there is a fee associated with some type of event that is held in the front of the Museum, on the property, but not necessarily within the building. He experienced some event where there was a small ceremony that took place in the parking lot entrance of the Museum. M. Umagat replied that as long as the individuals are not impeding and interrupting normal operations then there would be no fee.

Member V. Meno asked if they allow spectators to take photos inside the Museum. M. Umagat replied that they are only allowed to take photos in the current exhibit. Member V. Meno feels that a fee should be imposed because the individuals taking photos make money off their images. He shared his experience in the past while throwing a talaya net, a photographer took his photo in which he produced a calendar and sold it.

DCA President J. Sablan mentioned that the Museum issues out monthly calendars for all events taking place in the Museum, subject to change. He encouraged everyone who wanted a copy to request for one by simply calling one of the Museum staff.

C. Attorney General's Opinion -Trash Collection (Chamorro Village)

DCA President J. Sablan reported that he submitted a Request For Opinion to the Attorney General regarding trash fees to be passed onto Chamorro Village food and dry goods vendors in January. Reference Number DCA 17-0052 was provided to the Department. DCA was paying approximately $8,000 dollars a month for trash collection. A follow-up letter was sent on March 14, 2017.

Today, Sinot Sablan was happy to announce that the AG's Office determined that trash is considered utilities and the Chamorro Village may pass on the charges to the vendors. He presented a Resolution, asking for all Board members to approve it.

V. Action Items

A. Board Resolution No. 2017-003 Trash Collections

Resolution No. 2017- 003 states that the DCA Board of Trustees shall hold businesses responsible for the payment of their respective utilities including power, water, sewer, and trash costs on a fair share basis at the I Sengsong Chamorro.

Member Dina Hernandez made a motion to approve the adoption of Resolution No. 2017-003, seconded by member V. Meno.

MOTION PASSED.

In addition, DCA President J. Sablan shared that the Chamorro Village Manager will determine the exact rates based on how many trash bins as well as food vendors. He mentioned that Jamaican Grill Restaurant may opt to get their own trash bin because they are a much larger restaurant establishment.

B. Guam Museum – Gift Shop

Member V. Meno expressed his concern with the Museum's gift shop. He feels that a committee should be in place to ensure that the quality of the products being sold is in compliance with Guam's law. In his experience, he's came across multiple items from the Philippines with a Made on Guam sticker slapped on the front. He is hopeful that the process will even invite other artists to showcase their work. DCA President J. Sablan invited M. Umagat from Galaide Group to share his sentiments about the gift shop.

M. Umagat stated that Galaide Group is also running the gift shop, which was started by GUMA, a non-profit organization. Most of the items being sold in the gift shop are from GUMA incubators and some individuals who have gone through some parts of the GUMA training program. He explained that they also carry some products from other artists as well as Master Carver Tun Jack Lujan. M. Umagat expressed that they try to carry all products that are a true representation of the island and is unaware of any of the current products being produced in the PI. He shared that they receive many calls from other artists wanting to sell their products in the gift shop that are not necessarily turned down, but it is dependent on the product that they are selling.

Member V. Meno interrupted Mr. M. Umagat and reiterated the importance of forming a special committee to ensure that all artists on Guam have a fair chance for their artwork to be seen and possibly sold in the Museum. He expressed that the people of Guam own the Museum and he doesn't feel that it should only be limited to the GUMA organization. DCA President J. Sablan asked who ultimately decides who will be selected to sell at the gift shop. M. Umagat replied that Galaide Group, Cliff and Monica Guzman does the selection.

The Board of Trustees agree that there should be an un-biased panel in place to ensure a fair selection. Member Dina Hernandez asked where all the proceeds from the gift shop go. M. Umagat answered that all products at the gift shop are on consignment at a 75/ 25 rate. When a product is sold, 75% of the gross sale goes back to the artist; 15% goes to GUMA for a transaction-handling fee, and 10% is retained by the Guam Museum. He stated that there are so many products coming in, but there isn't enough space to house all of them. He is also in agreement of having a panel in place so that they can determine which products should be reduced.

DCA President J. Sablan asked for clarification regarding the $10,000.00 amount that is included in the report. M. Umagat replied that the amount is the gift shops' gross sales and that 10% of that amount is owned by the Guam Museum. Vice-Chair L. Iriarte asked whether any of the members wanted to move forward with a motion to set parameters for what will be sold in the Guam Museum. Member and Master Blacksmith F. Lizama commented that the individuals selected for the panel should be knowledgeable of the culture and traditions.

Vice-Chair L. Iriarte asked Mark Umagat to share with the Board what items are quick selling items. M. Umagat stated that women's jewelry and 3-D puzzles produced by Ron Castro are the top selling items.

Secretary Maria Vilante made a motion to establish a review panel for the Guam Museum Gift Shop for the purpose of selecting marketable Guam made products as well as items that reflect Guam's history and culture, seconded by member F. Lizama.

MOTION PASSED

Discussion:

Member F. Lizama asked how to address the fact that some of the books being sold at the Museum are not made on Guam, however, they are about Guam.

The Review Panel will establish the rules and regulations.

Member V. Meno recommended that the panel be diverse to include business representatives and local artists with the knowledge of Guam's culture, history, and traditions. |

The Board of Trustees asked who would be the approving body to make selections for the review panel. DCA President J. Sablan recommended that the selection and approval be decided by himself as the President for DCA.

M. Umagat mentioned that the only products in the Guam Museum gift shop that are not locally made are the merchandise such as the umbrellas and t-shirts.

VI. New Business

Member F. Lizama is concerned that there are traditional Master's on island that are not practicing the discipline that were recognized for. In his experience with the Guam Micronesian Island Fair, he's noticed that some Master's were not promoting, displaying, nor demonstrating the discipline they are a Master of, but instead practicing other skills in another discipline. Mr. F. Lizama strongly feels that if they are not practicing and promoting, their title should be taken away.

DCA President J. Sablan recommended that Mr. F. Lizama bring up this issue to the CAHA Board. He called on CAHA staff Sherrie Barcinas to clarify whether or not there are rules that state once you are a master, you are a master for life. S. Barcinas replied that she was unsure if there are rules that state the individual must perpetuate and promote the discipline once they already have the title. There are only rules on longevity leading up to the nomination.

Member V. Meno was offended and felt as if the comments made targeted him. He stated that no one has ever offered him the opportunity to put some type of program together besides Master Frank Rabon and the University of Guam. He stated that it has also been awhile that CAHA asked him to come up with a program. Mr. Meno feels that the songs are too old fashion for this generation to appreciate it.

VII. OTHER DISCUSSION

DCA President J. Sablan enthusiastically announced that the Guam Micronesian Island Fair was a huge success, however, he received many comments regarding the lack of Micronesian performers. Member D. Hernandez, who is also employed under GVB, commented that there were many Micronesian performers and that although the Polynesian groups were their main headliners, the Micronesian groups were still featured everyday.

Member V. Meno expressed his disappointment in the Festival. He said that in previous festivals there was more involvement with other islands. He noted that New Zealand and Kosrae were some of the islands that were not present. D. Hernandez replied that the other islands were invited, however, they couldn't come due to funding restraints.

DCA President J. Sablan recommended planning ahead by planting more trees around the area. He had received many comments from individuals complaining about the heat. He also shared that the Chamorro Village staff noticed that more people were hanging out in the Chamorro Village side because it was cooler.

Guam Museum Gallery A

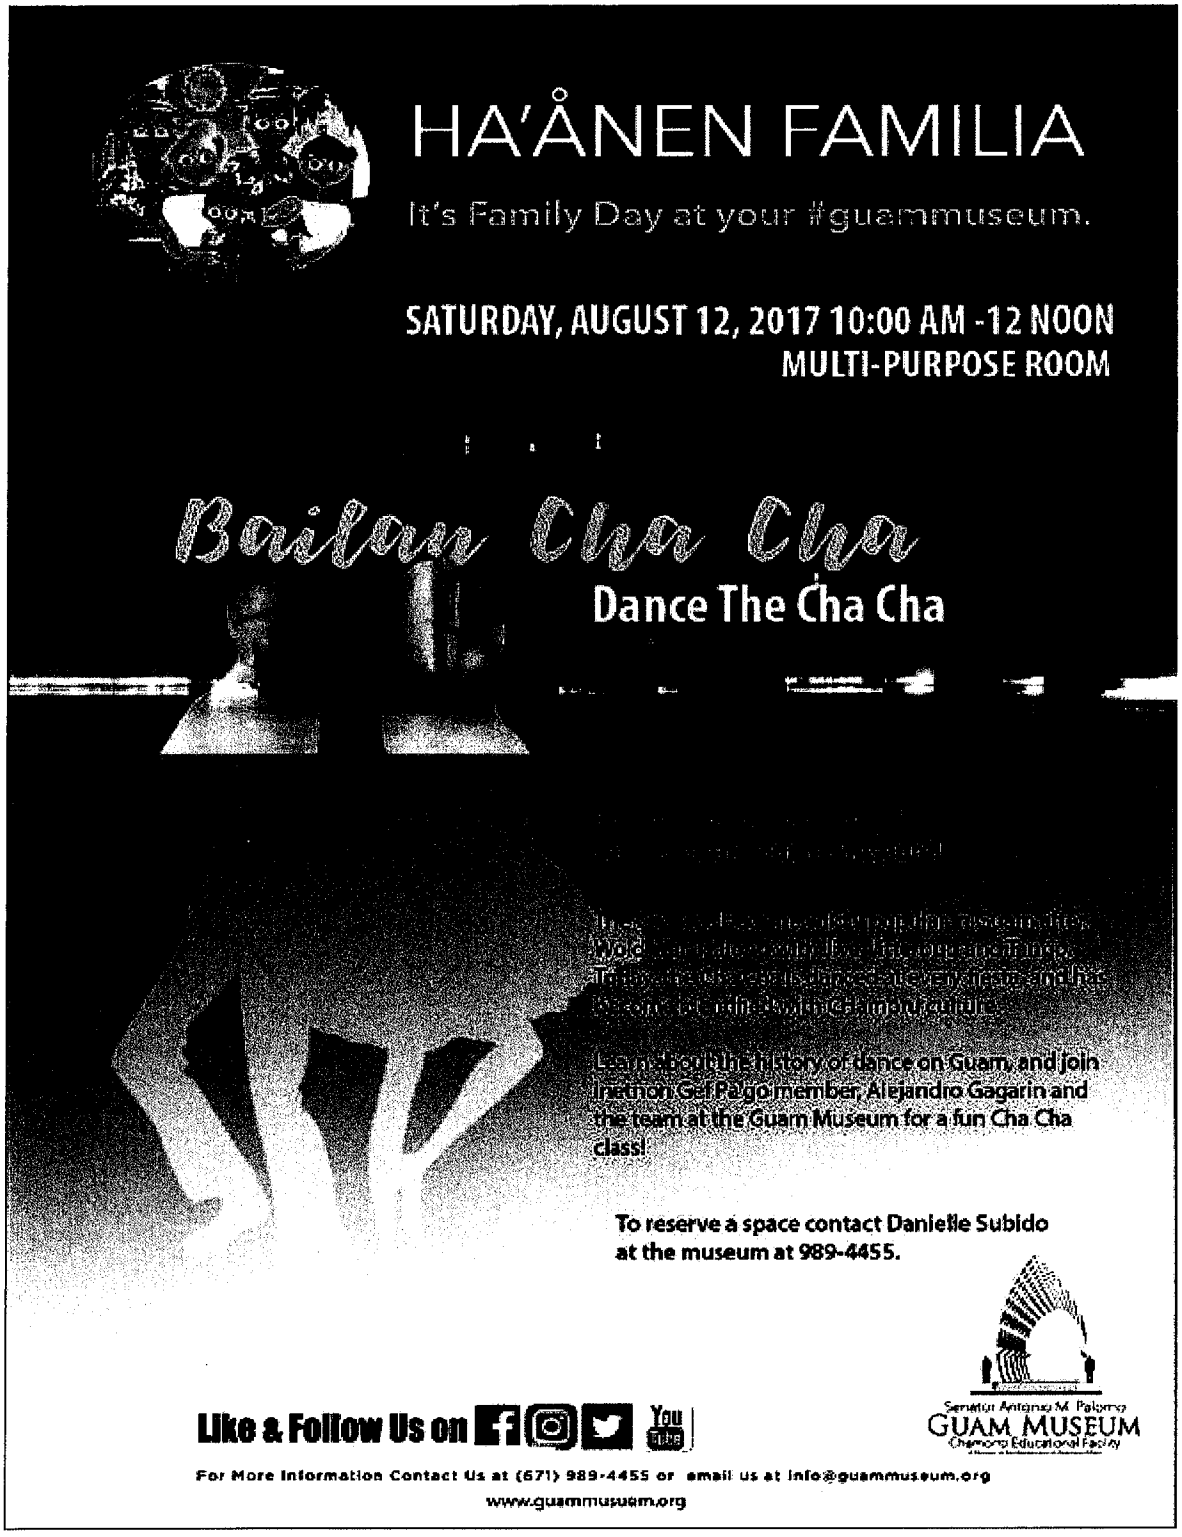

Ha'ånen Familia — Bailan Cha Cha
Saturday, August 12, 2017 — 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. — Museum Multipurpose Room
The Cha Cha became wildly popular in Guam after World War II, along with Jive, Jitterbug and Tango. Today, the Cha Cha is danced at every fiesta, and has become identified with CHamoru culture. Learn about the history of dance on Guam, and join Inetnon Gef Pa'go member, Alejandro Gagarin, and the team at the Guam Museum for a fun Cha Cha class. To reserve a space, contact Danielle Subido at the museum at 989-4455.

Documentary Film Showings — Guam's Liberation: The Story of Guam's People in the Years Surrounding WWII
Friday, August 18 and Saturday, August 19, 2017 — 11:00 a.m. AND 1:00 p.m. — Museum Indoor Theater
Join us at the Guam Museum for this classic WWII and Liberation documentary film by Annette Donner as we close out the summer, and this season of remembrance and commemoration. Guam's Liberation tells the story of I Tiempon Gera, and the Japanese Occupation and American recapture of Guam through rare archival footage and historic photographs of the era.

Stories in the Exhibition — The Story of the Chagui'an Massacre
Saturday, August 19, 2017 — 12:00 p.m. — Museum Exhibition in Gallery A
Among the thousands of CHamorus held at the Manenggon concentration camp, 45 men were forced to carry supplies to a Japanese command post at Milalak near Chagui'an, Yigo. The location of this command post was unknown to American Liberating Forces who landed in Guam on July 21, 1944. As the battle reached Yigo on August 7, 1944, a gruesome discovery was made near CHagui'an by a Marine Regiment — a Japanese truck loaded with the decapitated bodies of the CHamoru men. As the search continued the following morning, 21 more bodies were found at Chagui'an. In commemoration of the those lives lost, the Guam Museum welcomes Chagui'an memorial researcher, John Blas, to share the story of the site and the CHamoru experience of World War II.

Guam Museum HITA Talk — Intergenerational Trauma Surrounding World War II in Guam
Saturday August 19, 2017 — 2:30 p.m. — Museum Indoor Theater
What is intergenerational trauma? How has the WWII in Guam impacted generations of CHamorus and society today? The Guam Museum welcomes Patricia L.G. Taimanglo, Ph.D. to speak about intergenerational transmission of historic community trauma, culturally responsive counselling, and strategies of healing that are rooted in an understanding and knowing of history. Join us for this important talk that sheds light on the deep and complicated legacy of the war on Guam.

Re: Opinion relating to Executive Order 2017-02 and transfer of the Chamorro Village (I Sengsong Chamorro) from Department of Chamorro Affairs to Guam Economic Development Authority.

This Office is in receipt of your request for an opinion with respect to the legality of Executive Order 2017-02 wherein the Governor, pursuant to his Organic Act authority to reorganize the executive branch of the government of Guam, has transferred the Chamorro Village (I Sengsong Chamorro) from the Department of Chamorro Affairs to the Guam Economic Development Authority.

BACKGROUND

A. History of the Chamorro Village ('I Sengsong Chamorro') and the Department of Chamorro Affairs

Public Law 14-154 (Dec. 19, 1978) created a public market and a public market revolving fund under the control of the Department of Commerce "for Guam products at such place or places as the Director may deem proper." That public market later came to be known as the Chamorro Village.

More than twenty years later, the Legislature created "a non-stock, non-profit public corporation to be known as the 'Dipattamenton I Kaohao Guinahan Chamorro' or 'Department of Chamorro Affairs' ('Corporation')." P.L. 25-069 (July 8, 1999), codified at 5 GCA § 87101, et seq. Its purposes were varied:

> responsible for overseeing all Federal aid programs, grants ..." P.L. 26-169: 1. In addition, transferring the duties to these agencies defies the Legislature's desire "that responsibility ... [be] vested at the highest levels of the Executive Branch of government." Id.
> We conclude that because Executive Order 2004-07 conflicts with an applicable law, it is not a valid exercise of the Governor's Organic Act power to issue executive orders under 48 U.S.C. § 1422. Therefore, because its "unconstitutionality is clearly apparent[,]" County Road, 677 N.W.2d at 348, Executive Order 2004-07 must be struck down as inorganic.

Id., 2004 Guam 10 ¶¶ 69, 70 (editorial ellipses and brackets in original; footnote omitted).†

> Six years later, the Supreme Court reiterated its holding in In re Camacho.
> The Organic Act expressly authorizes the Governor to issue executive orders, but also limits the scope of that authority, stating that the Governor "shall have the power to issue executive orders and regulations not in conflict with any applicable law." 48 U.S.C.A. § 1422 (emphasis added). If an executive order directly conflicts with applicable statutory law, the order is inorganic and invalid. In re Camacho, 2004 Guam 10 ¶ 61; cf. Bell v. Luis, 528 F.Supp. 846-51 (D.C. V.I. 1981) (stating that an executive order promulgated by the governor of the Virgin Islands was inorganic and consequently null and void when it conflicted with existing legislation).

Guerrero v. Santo Thomas, 2010 Guam 11 ¶ 41.

C. Application to the Question Presented

As in In re Camacho, we are presented with the question whether E.O. 2017-02 is "in conflict with any applicable law," specifically 5 GCA § 87103(b)(8) ("The [Department of Chamorro Affairs] shall have authority over and supervise the Chamorro Village (I Sengsong Chamorro)."). The Supreme Court's decision in In re Camacho compels us to conclude that it is.

The Governor may urge that there are differences between the executive order considered in In re Camacho and the executive order under consideration here. For instance, the DCA is † Having determined that "Executive Order 2004-07 fails the threshold determination of validity," the Court found it "unnecessary to address the issue of the Governor's attempt to exercise his Organic Act reorganization authority under 48 U.S.C. § 1422c(c). Id. 2004 Guam 10 ¶ 71. That is somehow unsatisfying. It may not be immediately obvious why the Court declined to address what seems on the surface to present its own separation of powers concerns. But the answer lies in the wording of the Organic Act, which restricts whatever changes the governor's reorganization plan may propose to those which are "as are necessary to the purposes of this chapter and the laws of Guam." 48 U.S.C. § 1422c(c) (emphasis added).

statutorily organized as a non-stock non-profit corporation, see, 5 G.C.A. § 87101, whose principal purpose is to serve as a "catalyst in the preservation, development and promotion of language, arts, humanities, historic and cultural preservation, research, restoration, presentation, museum activities and support programs significant to Guam's history and culture, and to enhance the future of the Chamorro people of Guam," 5 GCA § 87103(a), whereas other than its name there is nothing particularly culturally significant about the Chamorro Village, especially considering that it was originally intended in P.L. 14-154 as nothing more or less than a public market for Guam products. The Governor's conclusions that "although well intentioned, the placement of the Chamorro Village under DCA has not been to the mutual benefit to either DCA or the Chamorro Village itself, has not maximized promotion of locally-produced products," and ... "can be more effectively managed and operated if completely transferred [back] to GEDA," E.O. 2017-02, p. 2, may very well be true. But under the Organic Act as construed by the Supreme Court of Guam, that is a determination for the Legislature to make.

CONCLUSION

Because E.O. 2017-02 conflicts with the express language of 5 GCA § 87103(b)(8), it is in conflict with applicable law, and is therefore inorganic.

We trust we have sufficiently addressed your inquiry. For further information concerning this matter, please use the reference number shown above.

Pope's choir launches first U.S. tour in 30 years

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The Vatican's Sistine Chapel Choir is embarking on its first U.S. tour in 30 years, hoping to show audiences in New York, Washington and Detroit that it has abandoned the habits that earned it a reputation as the "Sistine Screamers."

The group of 20 adults and 30 boys, colloquially known as the "Pope's Choir," is the world's oldest choir. It started singing for pontiffs about 500 years ago. Today, the choir performs regularly in the Sistine Chapel below Michelangelo's masterpieces, at Masses the pope celebrates in St. Peter's Basilica and for international concert appearances.

Hearing the singers' dulcet tones today, it's hard to imagine they earned the nickname the "Sistine Screamers" a few years back for their habit of belting out their numbers operatically, relying on volume instead of technique.

To return the choir to its early glory in the 16th century, when the group attracted the best singers in Europe, Palombella did extensive research. He sifted through the Vatican archives, studying music manuscripts and analyzing the handwriting of Renaissance composers.

These days, the choir once again is drawing talent. Its current members include singers from Poland, Britain, Brazil and Argentina. Diegogaston Zamediom 40, says being the first Argentine singer in the choir of the first Argentine pope is the "maximum of the maximum."
