Dear Governor Calvo:

I am herewith submitting my notice of intention to retire effective 2 February 2018.

I have been deeply honored to have been appointed by you to serve as the Director of the Department of Public Health and Social Services. Over the past seven years I have continually drawn on your strength and drive to provide for the needs of our fellow Guamanians.

It has been a true honor to have served the people and to have worked with an outstanding Calvo/Tenorio team.

With deepest respect and admiration, I remain sir, your humble servant.

James W. Gillan
