GUAM MEMORIAL HOSPITAL AUTHORITY PUBLIC HEARING ON HOSPITAL FEES Wednesday, March 21, 2018 @ 9:00 A.M. DL Webb Conference Room	ATTENDANCE
	Present: Benita A. Manglona, Chief Financial Officer/ Presiding Hearing Officer Frumen Patacsil, Hospital QI Specialist	Guests Present: Refer to attached Attendance Sheet

AGENDA		DISCUSSION / RESPONSES	DECISION / ACTION
I.	Introduction	Ms. Benita Manglona introduced herself at the public hearing as the Chief Financial Officer and the Presiding Hearing Officer for this public hearing and announced the commencement of this public hearing at 9:04 a.m.	Informational
II.	Opening Remarks	On behalf of the GMHA Board of Trustees, the Hospital Administrator/CEO and the GMHA employees, Ms. Manglona welcomed the attendees at this public hearing. She indicated that we had an agenda to follow and the public would be given an opportunity to ask questions later.	Informational
III.	Purpose of the Public Hearing	Ms. Manglona cited the enactment of Public Law 29-02, Chapter V, Part IX, Section 2, §3131 on May 18, 2007, that all government departments and agencies shall conduct a public hearing, on an annual basis prior to April 1, on existing fee schedules and shall regularly adjust existing fees, pursuant to the Administrative Adjudication Act, or implement new fees for the purpose of cost recovery. Ms. Manglona also cited the enactment of Public Law 26-66 in December 2001 that removed the rate-setting jurisdiction from the PUC and gave it to the GMHA Board of Trustees and the Guam Code Annotated 10GCA §80109 that gave the authority to the Hospital to set its rates. In compliance with the Administrative Adjudication Law and further Guam Code Annotated directives, the Hospital did publish in The Guam Daily Post the announcement of this public hearing. The Hospital also sent the notice of this public hearing via electronic mails to the Governor's Office, Lieutenant Governor's Office, the Congresswoman's Office, and to our elected Senators of the 34th Guam Legislature and via facsimiles to various news media organizations. In addition, letters were sent to the third party payers via electronic mails together with the listing of new fee items inviting them to this public hearing. The Hospital also posted the Notice of Public Hearing, the list of new fee items, the updated Professional Fee Schedule and the existing fee schedule on its official website as mandated by public law. <td>IV.</td>
<td>Presentation of Existing Fees and Proposed New Fees</td>
<td>Mr. Patacsil introduced himself being in charge of the Hospital Charge Library. He presented at this public hearing a total of 8,394 existing Hospital fees, which were already adjudicated by the Legislature. Due to the volume of the existing fee schedule, we were unable to prepare copies for all attendees. The fee schedule is available on our website at www.gmha.org under Patient Portal – GMHA Fee Schedule – Current Fee Schedule. It is in PDF format and may be downloaded.

Mr. Patacsil also informed that effective April 1, we were adjusting 56 existing fees that were below the 2018 Medicare APC rates.

Mr. Patacsil then proceeded to present the 98 new fee items. These new fee items were submitted by several hospital departments from January to February 2018. The summary of these new fee items were as follows:

<tr><td rowspan="7">TOTAL:</td><td>Fee Items</td><td>Departments</td><td>Description</td></tr>
<tr><td>6</td><td>Pediatrics</td><td>Supplies</td></tr>
<tr><td>4</td><td>Central Supply Room</td><td>Supplies</td></tr>
<tr><td>9</td><td>Pharmacy</td><td>Pharmaceutical items</td></tr>
<tr><td>46</td><td>Operating Room</td><td>Supplies</td></tr>
<tr><td>33</td><td>Special Services</td><td>Supplies</td></tr>
<tr><td colspan="3">98 New Fee Items</td></tr>
</table>

The list of new fee items was available on the GMHA website at www.gmha.org under Public Information - GMHA Press Release – GMHA Public Hearing.

In addition, we have also updated 8,608 professional fees, which are available on our website under Patient Portal – GMHA Fee Schedule – Current Professional Fee.</td>

<td>V.</td>
<td>Testimonies from the Public</td>
<td>It was noted that no attendees had signed up for testimony.

Ms. Manglona stated that the public could submit a written testimony to the Hospital Administrator/CEO within five (5) days after this public hearing. These testimonies would be incorporated into the submission package to the 34th Guam Legislature.</td>

<tr>
<td>VI.</td>
<td>Questions and Answers on Proposed Fees</td>
<td>Ms. Manglona stated that we would now entertain any questions from the public concerning the fees presented at this public hearing today.

Question from Mr. Kevin Kerrigan of The Gum Daily Post and GMHA Responses
Mr. Kerrigan inquired that the list of fees presented did not show how much the rates have been increased. Benita explained that these were new fee items that were just introduced. The Hospital would develop new fee items on a daily basis that we put into operation.and were being used. We are required to hold a public hearing to notify the public and to present the fees to the Legislature. This is an ongoing process at the Hospital on a quarterly basis every year. Frumen added that some of these supplies were introduced since January 2018.</td>
<td>Informational</td>

		Mr. Kerrigan also inquired if we have increased the current fees. Benita responded that we have approval from the Board of Trustees to increase our facility fees at 5% across the board on April 1 every year. The facility fees include room and board, medication and supplies. This annual rate increase does not include professional fees. We update the professional fees every year, which could be an increase or decrease according to the updated Physician's Fee Schedule available in January every year. Benita further stated that we would compare our rates in the ChargMaster with the Medicare rates that are published in November each year and would identify those that have fallen below the Medicare rates for the increase. If the increase is above 5%, we would have to go the Legislature for approval. The 56 fees were the only fees below the Medicare rates that we identified from the existing fee schedules. These fees were above the 5% threshold and therefore we were presenting them at this public hearing and would then submit to the Legislature for approval. She further explained that the Medicare rates are already low so we will look at the increase as our benchmark. We have to present to our Board of Trustees for approval first and then submit to the Legislature for approval. This was the Hospital's challenges in the past because the charges had never been addressed. We would also look at all angles to see where the deficiencies were. One of the deficiencies cited by the Office of Inspector General was that the fee schedule was not regularly reviewed. One of our corrective actions to the Office of Inspector General was that we would review the Hospital charges regularly and would make changes. Mr. Kerrigan further inquired if there were any other facility or professional fees that were below the current Medicare rates other than the 56 fees. Benita stated that the 56 charges were the only items currently identified below the Medicare rates.	Informational
VII.	Closing Remarks	Ms. Manglona thanked everyone for taking their time to attend this public hearing. The next public hearing will be scheduled in the next quarter.	Informational
VIII.	Adjournment	The public hearing was adjourned at 9:18 a.m.

World heralds International Women's Day

Protests, rallies mark call for independence

By Laura King, Kate Linthicum and Sabra Ayres
Los Angeles Times

MOSCOW – Galvanized by hopes that the #MeToo movement might at last herald a social sea change, women across the globe rallied, chanted and in some cases walked off the job Thursday to mark International Women's Day.

From Moscow to Mexico City to Manila, women and their supporters pressed for a range of demands, including equal pay for equal work, a halt to workplace sexual harassment, a greater voice in public policy, more educational and professional opportunities and an end to violence against women.

But amid expressions of solidarity and determination, many of those bearing the heaviest burdens of inequality were too busy simply trying to get through another day to think about attending a march. And in some cases, the authorities stepped in – as happened in Iran, where an attempt to mark the day with a rally ended with several arrests.

Like the workers' holiday May Day, International Women's Day has never garnered quite the attention in the United States that it does overseas. But over the last several months, the U.S., with Hollywood somewhat improbably leading the way, has been a wellspring for a wide-ranging social reckoning on sexual harassment that has been spreading to other countries.

The White House released a statement hailing the administration's efforts to empower women, even as it batted away questions over the claims of an adult-film actress who said she was paid hush money just before the election of President Donald Trump in an attempt to silence her about an affair with him more than a decade ago.

"As we mark International Women's Day, we remain committed to the worthwhile mission of enhancing women's leadership in the world and building a stronger America for all," the statement said.

Russia marches interrupted

Women's Day is a national holiday in Russia, but President Vladimir Putin's official congratulations seemed to praise the existing order of things, rather than vowing to support changes that would empower women.

Praising women for creating "a welcoming atmosphere" at work while also taking on "daily cares about the house and children," the Russian leader declared "our enchantment with your beauty and tenderness."

With most of the country off from work, Moscow's central streets were free of traffic while its sidewalks were full of shoppers and couples strolling. Women braved the cold temperatures with bouquets of flowers in their hands.

Several Moscow Metro stations offered manicures and makeovers to female passengers. Ironically, women are forbidden from driving metro trains – it's one of the job titles considered "too dangerous." Last year, a woman took the state to court to earn her right to become a captain on a Volga River cargo ship.

Thursday's holiday also coincided with a sexual harassment scandal brewing in Russia's parliament. Dozens of protesters took turns standing outside the parliament building to demand the resignation of a pro-Kremlin deputy accused by three female journalists of sexual harassment. The lawmaker in question apologized for any offense given but denied the accusations.

Denouncing 'honor killings'

In Turkey, which has been the scene of a sweeping crackdown against government opponents, the Women's Day commemorations turned into a wider condemnation of human rights abuses. Groups organizing a march down the capital's famed Istiklal Street condemned the closing of news outlets and the ongoing state of emergency declared by President Recep Tayyip Erdogan.

But marchers also sought to call attention to issues such as "honor killings," which target women perceived to have brought their families dishonor. More than 400 such killings took place last year, according to We Will Stop Femicide Platform, a Turkish group monitoring the fatalities.

Thousands gather in Paris

In some countries, the day took on a distinctly commercial air. Chinese retailers staged a blitz of retail promotions aimed at women, offering specials pegged to what they dubbed "Queens' Day" or "Goddesses' Day," the Reuters news agency reported. That drew complaints from some women's groups, who called it a distraction from social ills such as sexual harassment.

Western Europe considers itself femimist-friendly, by and large, but protests there centered on longstanding inequities.

In France, where estimates are that women earn a quarter less than their male counterparts, the day was marked by a brief symbolic pause in sessions of both houses of the parliament. The government announced a raft of new measures aimed at combating gender inequality and violence against women.

In central Paris, thousands gathered in the Place de la Republique, which houses a large statue of Marianne, the symbol of the French republic.

"It's not a party!" said organizer Veronique Sehier. "It's a battle for everyone."

edly called on the Legislature to pass a measure ahead of the fiscal crisis.

Last week, lawmakers were finally able to pass a new tax bill promising to stabilize GovGuam finances. The governor enacted the law shortly there after.

Not all senators agree that increasing taxes is the proper solution. Vice Speaker Therese Terlaje said Wednesday during a meeting with student leaders that she was opposed to a tax increase. She added, however, that education should not be in the crosshairs of budget reductions.

> – Vice Speaker Therese Terlaje

"You can see it in the headlines, you'll see where money is being spent and maybe you'll agree with us that money should not be spent in those places," Terlaje said. "Why should one agency be getting salary raises while we threaten students with furloughs or cutting down sports?"

The Guam Daily Post obtained personnel documents showing pay raises for 123 government employees through a Freedom of Information Act request.

The documents show the pay adjustments are in accordance with the 2014 Competitive Wage Act appeal process. The previous pay levels were assigned a new pay grade to authorize the raises. There were also promotions and shifting to certain job categories that paid more.

"prayers and thanks ... for his brave decision to come forward regarding his uncle."

Byrnes acknowledged Apuron's right to appeal, but said the Apostolic Tribunal "has clearly and concretely determined a finding of 'guilty' regarding 'certain of the accusations' made against (Apuron)."

After the Mass, Byrnes told reporters he would have more to say about the verdict at a news conference slated for 1 p.m. today. He declined further comment about the case Sunday. However, a number of parishioners shared their sentiments — relief that a conclusion had been reached and the hope that a damaged island church can now start to heal.

Time to heal

"The truth has come out," said Agnes White of Tamuning, "and my heart goes out to all the victims who have had to suffer like this for so many decades."

While grateful that the trial was over, White said she was "sad it had to be this way."

"There'll be healing in our archdiocese and that we can move forward," said Agnes White of Tamuning.

"The church will have to heal," said Peter Botelho of Mongmong. "I'm pretty sure the Lord understand(s) one of his highest members ... did wrong." Referring to Apuron, Botelho said "he himself knew since long time ago the wrong, when you put on that coat, you don't do that wrong."

"The Vatican made their decision and we're going to have to respect that," said David Cruz. The Piti resident is running with Sen. Dennis Rodriguez Jr. on his gubernatorial ticket.

Cruz said he hopes the guilty verdict will "put closure" to the scandal and mend the divisions it has caused within the church.

Piti resident Patricia Perry said, "I'm very happy with the decision of the Vatican ... at least we're doing something to put an end to all these sexual abuse(s)." She said she believes the verdict will "start the healing process in the church."

"I think the whole situation is very sad for everyone," said Nancy Kelly of Asan.

"It's just intolerable that any of this has gone on," she said, adding, "it's not just our church, it has gone on worldwide, and it absolutely needs to be stopped."

"The pope had no other choice," she said.

Tamuning resident Chuck White said he was pleased with the verdict.

"I've chatted with one of the alleged victims and found him trustworthy; I think he's not lying."

White called the verdict "a milestone for the church," and said he was also "pleased with the leadership of Archbishop Byrnes."
