Renie "Rey" A. Llaneta

Rey Llaneta is a successful entrepreneur and businessman, retired Army Lieutenant Colonel, and volunteer for various organizations, such as the Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve (ESGR), to help improve the quality of life for the soldiers and people of Guam. He tackles every challenge with enthusiasm and a can-do attitude that motivates individuals around him to perform their best. In every facet of his life, Rey received numerous awards and special recognition for outstanding performance and unique accomplishments.

As an Army officer, Rey served in the U.S. armed forces from 1981 to 2009, a total of 28 years of active duty and reserve service. He served in Europe, Central America, Southwest Asia, the Pacific, and various military locations across the mainland U.S. His major areas of assignment include command and staff positions at the company, battalion, division, Army, agency, and national level. Specific duties were initially in the military police (honor guard, law enforcement, confinement, and protective services), and later in defense contracting, internal auditing, logistics, and facilities management/engineering. During a short break in active service, as a Navy civil-service employee, Rey received a prestigious U.S. Navy civilian medal—the U.S. Navy Meritorious Civilian Service Award—the third highest national award given to a U.S. Navy federal civilian employee "for outstanding performance". This award is given to less than .001% of all U.S. Navy civilian employees. Within his 28 years of military service, Rey successfully led hundreds of American service men and women and earned numerous military awards and recognition: the South West Asia Medal with Bronze Star; the Meritorious Service Medal (x4); the Joint Service Commendation Medal; the Air Force Commendation Medal; the Army Commendation Medal (x3); the Army Achievement Medal (x2); and the Guam Commendation Medal (x3).

As an entrepreneur, Rey achieved financial independence through sole proprietorship of real estate before retiring from the Army. However, after his retirement in 2009, Rey wanted to excel in corporate business, and was thus selected by Chugach Alaska Corporation as the Manager for the Western Pacific Region. Within one year, Rey was able to capture a multi-million dollar project, and the following year, became the only Chugach executive whose bonus was doubled for his exceptional performance. In 2013, Chugach Alaska Corporation-Guam was recognized as "one of the best companies to work for" by Guam Business Magazine. After 5 years with Chugach, Rey wanted to expand his horizons and added 2 other business ventures to his entrepreneurship: corporate ownership of a real estate agency in the Philippines and president of a newly formed business management and strategic services consulting firm. His business savvy locally and internationally facilitated his selection as the Governor's Economic Adviser. During this time, Rey was recognized for the following:

> February 2018- Rey was awarded the honor of being named 1 of 63 "Most Influential Filipino of Guam" by the Filipino Community of Guam; the umbrella organization of all Filipino Organizations/Associations in Guam.

[redacted] [redacted] [redacted]

Oct 2017- Rey was awarded the honor of being a nominee for the Filipino Community of Guam's Gawad Ulirang (Role Model) Award.

June 2017- Rey was awarded the prestigious "Eagle Award- Outstanding Volunteer" by the Employer Support of the Guard and Reserves (ESGR), a U.S. Depart of Defense organization, for his "Meritorious Achievements and Initiatives" as a volunteer.

December 2016 - Rey was bestowed honor and recognition as the "2016 Distinguished Alumni Awardee" by the University of Guam, a distinctive award given only to a small percentage of notable alumni.

May 2016 - Rey was awarded the prestigious "Seven Seals Award" by the Employer Support of the Guard and Reserves (ESGR), a U.S. Depart of Defense organization, for his "Meritorious Achievements and Initiatives" as a volunteer.

2015 - Rey was nominated for the prestigious Guam Business Magazine "Executive of the Year" award for "success and reputation in the business community; business creativity and entrepreneurship; leadership ability; business expansion; and community involvement".

International recognition includes: "Excellence in Real Estate" by RE/MAX Philippines (2016); "Recognition and Tribute for Outstanding & Significant Achievement in Entrepreneurship" (2016) and "Best Real Estate Brokerage Firm" (2015 and 2016) by the Golden Globe Award for Business Excellence in Manila, Philippines.

Rey currently holds the title of Economic Adviser to the Governor of Guam; Employer Outreach Director and Boss Lift Coordinator for the Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve (ESGR); Chairman of the Guam Alcoholic Beverage Control (ABC) board; and member of several civic organizations such as the Guam Chamber of Commerce and the Society of American Military Engineers. He is also a regular writer/contributor to the Pacific Daily News, Guam Business Magazine, and CASA Guam Magazine (real estate).

Rey earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree from the University of Guam (1984), a Master of Science Degree from Kansas State University (1992), is a Certified Professional Contracts Manager (CPCM) by the National Contracts Management Association (NCMA), and has numerous diplomas and certificates from the U.S. Army, the U.S. Air Force, and the U.S. Navy service schools. His high-school, college, and other civilian awards include: Who's Who Among American High School Students (1979-1980); Society of Distinguished American Students (1979-1980); Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges (1982- 1983 and 1983-1984); Outstanding Young Men of America Award (1987) and the International Who's Who of Professionals (1996).

Throughout his career, Rey and his lovely wife of 32 years, raised 3 wonderful children, and enjoy spending time with their 4 delightful grandchildren.

Piti welcomes playground

Businesses volunteer tools, manpower for park

Giving hands Volunteers put together playground equipment to install in a Piti park yesterday. Chugach Alaska Corp. and the Home Depot took the lead in the community service project to erect the equipment donated by the Navy more than a year ago.
