Governor Calvo,

I am writing to inform you of my resignation from the Archaeology position on the Guam Historic Preservation Review Board. I am resigning my seat because I will no longer be residing on Guam.

Thank you for this opportunity to serve on the Board and to contribute to historic preservation in our community. I hope that the Board will continue to provide guiding principles for preserving Guam's unique cultural and historical resources, and I hope to continue my participation even if not through a seat on the Board.

Sincerely,

Cacilie Craft, MA, RPA
