Summary:

I have been employed with the Guam Police Department for over 31 years. I am a highly motivated and well organized person with a desire to lead the Guam Police Department. I am an experienced manager who has held various management assignments within this organization. I have the necessary experience to deal with personnel, fiscal issues and managing federal grants. I have extensive background in police work, the necessary training and education that has prepared to assume a leadership role in the Guam Police Department. I am a team player who works well with people both within and outside this fine organization.

Work Experience:

Captain: April 2009 to Present

As a Police Captain for the past 9 years I have served in the following positions;

District II Division Chief- responsible for the administration and management of the Hagatna and Agat Precincts with over 60 officers. Formulate policies and written procedures for implementation. Identification of personnel training needs and personnel matters such as discipline.

Division Chief, Support Division- Responsible for the administration and management of GPD Support Services. This position encompasses the management of the department's entire vehicle fleet, to include repairs, maintenance and procurement of vehicles. Ensuring adequate supplies and equipment are readily available to meet the needs of the department. Management of all GPD assets such as equipment and buildings. Providing maintenance and repair services to all GPD facilities. Management of the Guam Police Land Mobile radio system.

Division Chief, Administration Division- Responsible for the administration and management of the Guam Police Human resources Officer, Records Section, training and Staff, Planning and Research Development, Payroll Section, and the Administrative Services Officer and the Recreational Boating Safety Program and the Federal/grants management programs. Key member of the department's Fiscal team.

Division Chief, Highway Patrol Division- Responsible for the administration and Management of the Guam Police Highway Patrol Develop policies and procedures for the enforcement of highway safety on the entire island. Management of federal grants awarded to Guam, Police to reduce, traffic fatalities, conduct DUI enforcement and checkpoints, speed checkpoints, and distracted driving enforcement.

Division Chief, Auxiliary Services Division: Responsible for the management of the Guam Police Department, Public Information Officer, Crime Stoppers Program, the Chaplain services, and the Victim Advocate Services. During this assignment I opened Guam first Family Justice Center, which was 100% federally funded aimed at providing services to victims of domestic violence and sexual assault.

Lieutenant: November 2004 to April 2009

Operations Chief, Highway Patrol Division – Responsible for the effective and efficient administration of the Highway Patrol, Guam Police Department. Oversee the daily operations of the division which include DUI enforcement, speed enforcement and distracted driving enforcement programs. The investigation of traffic related crashes and a fatal roadway crashes on the island. Applied for and managed federal grant funds used to conduct enforcement and education activities aimed at reducing drunk driving, speeding and distracted driving. During my tenure at Highway Patrol I managed the federal grant funded conversion of the department's crash reporting system from handwritten reports to a full electronic reporting system. This project was 100% funded with federal grants and has been in place for the past 10 years with a cost of over $1.5 million to design, and implement. Also responsible for the purchase of the Highway Patrol Drunk Buster Van. This van was purchased using a combination of DUI grant funds and Compact Impact funding. The van coast about $164,000.00 to procure. During this assignment I was able to upgrade and replace antiquated and outdated breath testing instruments use in Drunk Driving investigations. The current instruments, the Intoximeter EC/IR II is now the standard used by all local and military police departments on island.

Sergeant I: July 1998 to November 2004

Responsible for the direct supervision of police officers depending on the assignment. During this period I was primarily assigned to the Criminal Investigations Division. As a unit supervisor I oversee the daily work performance of police officers who conduct routine and complex criminal investigations of crimes such as robberies, theft, burglaries, and homicides. I also served as the Supervisor of the Team Closure task Force, which was formed to investigate unsolved homicides. The highlight of this assignment was the closure of a 20 year old unsolved homicide culminating with the arrest of the perpetrator in Saipan his extraction to Guam where he later pled guilty.

Police Officer: August 1987 to July 1998

During this period I was in the rank of Police Officer III, Police Officer II, and a Police Officer I. I was assigned to patrol operations where I honed my skills which led to my transfer to Criminal Investigation Section. During this time I investigated thefts, stolen vehicles, rapes, robberies and homicides amongst other crimes. Made arrest, seized evidence, executed search warrants and all other duties as directed by an immediate supervisor.

Adjunct Faculty Guam Community College: 1998 TO Present

I have been an adjunct Instructor at the Guam Community College for the past 20 years. I began as a special projects instructor for the Basic Law Enforcement Academy (BLEA) and eventually moved in to the regular college semesters as adjunct. I have taught the following courses at GCC;

CJ225- Criminal Investigations CJ100 – Intro to Criminal Justice
