RE: Courtesy Letter of Resignation from Guam Board of Examiners for Dentistry

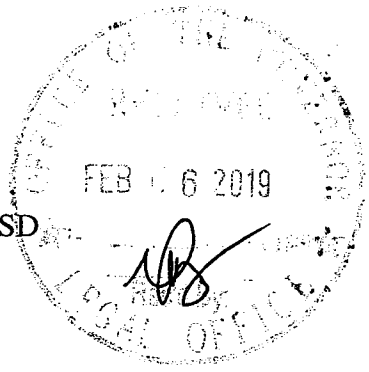

Dear Governor Leon Guerrero,

Congratulations on your successful election and in becoming Guam's first female governor. As a father of three young daughters it is with great pride to see such a great role model they can look up to. I wish you only the best as you and your team deal with the significant issues our island and its people face.

It has been my honor and a privilege serving as a member of the Guam Board of Examiners for Dentistry (GBED). As you enter into your first term as Governor of Guam, I am submitting my courtesy resignation from the GBED and completely support you in appointing those individuals you feel are most capable of serving the needs of the island community at this time. I also offer my full support and/or any information requested from your administration or future GBED Members.

Dangkalo na si yu'us ma'ase,

Earl Louis Sablan Sauget, DDS, MSD
