State Boards of Education

Dear State Board Colleagues,

This Friday, May 24, is your last chance to nominate a colleague or organization to receive a 2019 NASBE Award. June 7 is the deadline to nominate individuals to serve on the NASBE Board of Directors.

NASBE Awards: Each year NASBE recognizes individuals and organizations for their contributions to education and to their states. At the Annual Conference in October, we present awards to the Policy Leader of the Year, the Friend of Education, and up to three Distinguished Service Awards. NASBE's Board of Directors may also choose to designate an individual for the David Kysilko Award. Please refer to this packet for details on submitting nominations for these awards. Nominations are due to Sharon Cannon by Friday, May 24, 2019. The awards committee will meet for official board actions on the awards on June 14, 2019.

Nominations for the Board: Now is also the time to nominate individuals to serve on the NASBE Board of Directors. Elections will occur in October for chair-elect (two-year term becoming chair in year two), secretary-treasurer (two-year term), and area director (two-year terms in the Northeastern and Southern regions and three-year terms in the Central and Western regions). Details regarding these positions are included in this packet. Completed nominations are due to Sharon Cannon by Friday, June 7, 2019, for board action on Friday, June 14.

I hope you are planning to submit nominations for awards and service on the Board of Directors. We are happy to answer questions or provide guidance as needed. Feel free to reach out to Sharon Cannon or me for assistance.

Regards,

Robert E. Hull
