Subject: 2018 Election Comparative Analysis Report

Håfa Adai,

Pursuant to 3 GCA § 2103(d), the Guam Election Commission (GEC) respectfully submits the Twenty-Third (23rd) Edition of the Election Comparative Analysis Report and legislative recommendations, as approved at a public meeting held on June 25, 2019. It provides statistical data for the 2018 Primary, General, and Special elections and historical data from preceding elections, as well as the GEC's recommendations for updating the Election Code of Guam.

Recent legislation has allowed for more accessible registration opportunities for Guam's electors. Such opportunities include online registration, motor voter registration, pre-registration, volunteer voter registration, and district registration. In order to meet the higher influx of registration submittals from these sources and to provide a more accurate and complete voter registry, the GEC respectfully requests that the change of close of registration be favorably considered.

The Uniformed and Overseas Absentee Voting Act (UOCAVA) requires that the GEC transmit its absentee ballots to military personnel, their dependents, and overseas citizens forty-five (45) days prior to any election. Current statute allows for candidates to file for candidacy no later than sixty (60) days prior to the election. The GEC requests that the candidate filing days be amended in order to allow adequate time for finalization of qualified candidates, ballot design and production, and to meet transmittal dates mandated by both federal and local election statutes.

The election campaign contributions and expenditures reporting requirements in Chapter 17 of Title 3, Guam Code Annotated currently require candidates, committees, and political parties to file an Organizational Report within ten (10) working days of collecting and or spending more than Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250.00) towards the next campaign. Currently, the time between submitting the Organizational Report and a preliminary Election Campaign Contributions and Expenditures Report may span up to four years (in the case of gubernatorial candidates). In order to promote greater transparency in campaign spending practices, the GEC respectfully recommends that the current statute be amended to mandate quarterly reports of campaign contributions and expenditures once a political organization has been established.

In the 2018 General Election, sixty-seven percent (67%) of Guam's voters exercised their right to vote, a significant decrease from the 2014 and 2016 General Elections. Additionally, the GEC struggles with filling the three hundred thirty-five (335) precinct official positions required by law to run election day processes. In order to increase voter participation and have a higher caliber of precinct officials, the GEC humbly asks that favorable consideration be given to declaring, by statute, the General Election day a government of Guam holiday.

The GEC continually strives to improve the election experience for all parties involved in Guam's electoral process, present and future. Si Yu'os ma'åse' for your continued support of the Guam Election Commission!

MARIA I.D. PANGELINAN

Executive Director
Guam Election Commission
Aprill 2011 - Present

Buenas yan Håfa Adai! Pursuant to 3 GCA § 2103(d)(2), the Guam Election Commission is pleased to present the twenty-third (23rd) edition of the Election Comparative Analysis Report for 2018. The twenty-third (23rd) edition provides statistical data for the 2018 Primary, Special, and General Elections, as well as historical data form preceding elections.

The Primary Election was conducted on Saturday, August 25, 2018 to determine the partisan and non-partisan candidates who would advance to the General Election in the Gubernatorial, Legislative, Congressional, and Attorney General races. Conducted concurrent to the Primary Election was a Special Election to fill the vacancy in the Office of the Public Auditor.

On Tuesday, November 8, 2018, the General Election was conducted to determine the partisan and non-partisan candidates who would be elected to serve in official capacities as Maga'låhi yan I Segundo Na Maga'låhen Guåhan (Governor and Lieutenant Governor of Guam), Senators of I Mina'trentai Singko Na Liheslaturan Guåhan (35th Guam Legislature), Guam's Non-Voting Delegate to the 116th U.S. House of Representatives, Attorney General of Guam, Members of the Guam Education Board, and Commissioners to the Consolidated Commission on Utilities. The General Election ballot also included two (2) Judicial Retention Questions.

The GEC continues to work toward improving its processes and resources, making every effort to uphold the integrity of the electoral process both now and in future elections. I would like to thank the Government of Guam agencies who provided services and resources necessary to conduct the 2018 Primary, Special, and General Elections. The collaboration between the GEC, Department of Public Works, Guam Department of Education , Guam Police Department, Mayors Council of Guam, and University of Guam greatly contributed to the success of the 2018 election cycle. Lastly, I commend GEC Commissioners and staff for their hard work and dedication in the months leading up to, throughout, and after the 2018 elections.

The GEC is certain that this publication will provide you with valuable information concerning Guam's 2018 elections.

Sinseramente,

MARIA I.D. PANGELINAN
Executive Director

The Guam Election Commission in coordination with its staff, Executive Director, and 7 Board members worked to serve the people of Guam and complete the 2018 Primary, Special, and General Election. In the months preceding the 2018 Primary Election the former Public Auditor resigned leaving a vacancy and triggering a Special Election. The timing of the vacancy facilitated the option for the Commission Board to hold the mandated Special Election along with the 2018 Primary Election to maximize resources and minimize cost. Along with the confusion about who was eligible to run, the former Deputy Public Auditor Yukari Hechanova expressed interest, but was given incorrect information from the Civil Service Commission. She eventually was able to file for candidacy even though the deadline had passed after a review and discussion by the Commission's Board. The preparation for these elections became paramount as the number of ballots would increase by a third affecting ballot stocks, Precinct Official training, and tabulation. Precinct Officials felt the brunt of difficulties at their locations having to count and maintain ballots throughout Election day and at Election Headquarters as they attempted to reconcile three different counts. Election Headquarters felt the delays compounded as staff worked to tabulate all three types of ballots. It was not long after the unofficial results were made public that certain gubernatorial teams protested and demanded a full recount. Their request was granted by the Board and the recount was held at Guam Election Commission offices at GCIC building witnessed by media and party members. The results were then reconfirmed and approved by the Commission Board.

The 2018 Primary Election results were highly contested by competing gubernatorial campaigns and thus ushered the start of comprehensive write-in campaign by one of the disqualified teams. The Commission Board encountered issues immediately dealing with the legality of a write-in campaign on the continuation of campaigning activities and the reporting of financial activities. Among those issues were the questions regarding the layout of the ballot and how names would need to appear in order to be counted toward the campaign. The Commission was limited on both time and resources regarding ballot printing that made adding a third independent column unfeasible so the standard two party/two column layout was retained. Any areas of ambiguity in the law regarding write-in or independent campaigns were specially highlighted in this election cycle. The Commission Board and legal counsel reviewed any and all precedence to make determinations following the intent of Guam election code.

The Election Commission continued to prepare for the 2018 General Election through hosting various trainings and the continued push for registrations. Throughout 2018 there was a sustained and diligent effort to promote registrations not only through the political parties, but independently by media and local institutions such as the University of Guam, public, and private high schools. The numbers steadily grew as the 2018 General Election neared and finally capped off at 55, 941 registered voters for the 19 precincts throughout Guam.

It was less than two weeks before the anticipated 2018 General Election Super Typhoon Yutu made direct landfall in the CNMI and overhead of Guam. The devastation experienced immediately triggered emergency services be deployed to provide aid to the CNMI. Large segments of the local population such as the Guam Army National Guard and other emergency service agencies traveled over with no guarantee of returning before Guam's 2018 General Election. The Commission with little time to act proceeded to inform citizens and arrange absentee voting for any and all voters to exercise their lawful right. Moreover, the Commission Board facilitated staff members and the Independent Board Member P. Civille to travel to Saipan and conduct Absentee voting to those individuals who were called to duty suddenly. Voters who otherwise would have been disenfranchised were able to vote because of the effort and flexibility of the Commission as a whole. In addition, due to the damages inflicted by Super Typhoon Yutu, the CNMI government postponed their General Election from November 6, 2018 to November 13, 2018 in order to focus on the islands' recovery and redesign election plans to accommodate the islands' infrastructure. The Guam Election Commission decided to provide assistance to our neighboring islands to ensure the success of their election. On November 10, 2018 the GEC sent two commission staff to assist the CNMI election commission with the preparation and execution of their 2018 General Election. Along with staff the Election Commission immediately sent one of its M650 tabulating machines to assist with the tabulation. Typhoon Yutu presented challenges that had never been dealt with before and the Commission staff expertly showcased their level of skill and competence.

November 6, 2018 the General election was underway and with collaboration from the various public high schools and their respective JROTC programs had numerous student volunteers who aided with traffic, directed voters to polling rooms, and alerted officials to curbside voters. Their service undoubtedly made Election day easier on voters and Precinct officials alike. 2018 General Election day at the precincts went on with few issues and unlike the 2018 Primary the Precinct Officials faced fewer dilemmas with ballot counts. Upon their arrival at Election Headquarters many precincts reconciled efficiently and without discrepancies. The Commission Board previously decided to sort for write-in votes at the same time the tabulators scanned and counted all ballots. This decision greatly affected the amount of time it took to tabulate as the machine halted at every write-in ballot and then needed to be manually separated into a specified write-in ballot envelope. The narrow margin of the unofficial results declared a front-runner that would be Guam's first female Governor. However, the staff as per standard protocol would need to publish all the write-in results. Which is when the write-in ballot envelopes were employed to account for each and every write-in vote. The process to manually record each write-in vote took roughly 3 days with the entire staff and Board members on site to witness. Once, these results were finalized and approved 2018 General Election results were made available to the public.

The 2018 elections were met with many obstacles and many of those were the result of the increase in the cost to acquire the many services required by the law and the Commission's Board. There are numerous stipulations in the Guam Election Code that require very specific and necessary faculties and goods that the Commission must find ways to obtain such as security from the Guam Police Department or the use of the Guam Public Schools as polling locations. Previously, these services were not billed to the Guam Election Commission and so the budget to run such an election in a way that mirrored previous elections became significantly more costly. The Director and Board unable to avoid these extra expenses worked with government agencies and private businesses to ensure efficient spending. Future elections are likely to reflect a similar increase as these expenditures are the new normal.

1.11 GOVERNORS AND LIEUTENANT GOVERNORS 1600 – Present

There were four distinct eras in the appointment or election of Guam's Governors. The first of these is the Spanish era, during which Spanish Governors were appointed from the 1600's through the early 1800's. The second era is the Naval Administration era during which Guam's Governors were military officers appointed by the President of the United States, from 1899 to 1949 aside from the Japanese occupation during 1941-1944. The enactment of the Organic Act of Guam in 1950 began the third era. The Organic Act provided Guam with a civil government in which civilian Governors were appointed by the President of the United States, from 1949 through 1970. The Elective Governor Act in 1968 marked the fourth era. In 1970, the people of Guam elected its first Governor and Lieutenant Governor. To date, Guam continues to elect its Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

1.12 GUAM LEGISLATURE: 1950 TO PRESENT

The Organic Act of Guam created a legislative body not to exceed twenty-one (21) members, to be known as senators, elected at large, or elected from legislative districts, or elected in part at large and in part from legislative districts by the people of Guam.

Members from the First through Fourteenth Legislature were elected at large. The Fifteenth Legislature and Sixteenth Legislature were elected by legislative districts apportioned as follows: First Legislative District – Includes the municipal districts of Dededo and Yigo, and entitled to seven (7) seats in the Guam Legislature; Second Legislative District – Includes the municipal districts of Tamuning, Agana Heights, Mongmong-Toto-Maite, and Barrigada, and entitled to six (6) seats in the Guam Legislature; Third Legislative District – Includes the municipal districts of Piti, Asan-Maina, Sinajana, Mangilao, Chalan Pago-Ordot and Yona, and entitled to four (4) seats in the Guam Legislature; and, Fourth Legislative District – Includes the municipal districts of Santa Rita, Agat, Umatac, Merizo, Inarajan, and Talofofo, and entitled to four (4) seats in the Guam Legislature.

In 1982, shortly before the deadline for filing nominating petitions, the United States District Court of Guam ruled that the nomination and election of the Legislature shall be held on an island-wide basis. A successful court suit was filed by a senatorial candidate who claimed that the number of seats per legislative district should be reapportioned to meet the 1980 Federal Census figure. Thus, the Court ruled that the Legislature would be elected on an island-wide basis in the 1982 election. To date, the legislative body is elected island-wide.

On March 31, 1995, Public Law 23-01 was enacted to provide for an initiative measure to reduce the membership of the Guam Legislature from twenty-one (21) to fifteen (15) members. This initiative was passed in the 1996 General Election, and subsequently enacted into law. The new statute, 3 GCA6101 reads, "Section 6101. Guam Legislature Description. I Liheslaturan Guåhan shall be a unicameral body consisting of 15 members who are elected at large and as provided by law [commencing with the election of the Twenty-Fifth Guam Legislature.]"

1.15 JUDICIARY

1.15.1 SUPERIOR COURT OF GUAM, 1978-PRESENT

In 1910, Governor Edward Dorn replaced the Spanish Court with the Island Court system to handle most criminal and civil cases. By 1933 the Island Court system had branched out into the Island Court, the Police Court, and the Justice Court. In 1941, Guam was invaded by the Japanese forces and occupied until July 21, 1944.

After the liberation Guam, the American forces placed the island under martial law with the exception of Military courts. In 1946, with the Naval Government reestablished, Judge Vicente P. Camacho and Judge Jose C. Manibusan were the only Guamanian Judges. In 1950 after the passage of the Organic Act, the island of Guam was afforded the right to establish the judicial branch. Guam law makers would pass Public Law 17 the Judiciary Act which would restructure the court system to have the District Court, the Island Court, the Police Court, and the Commissioners Court.

In 1974, Public Law 12-85 the Court Reorganization Act would rename the Island Court system to the present day Superior Court of Guam. Under the Superior Court of Guam, judges are appointed by the Governor for a seven (7) year term and retained by public voting.

Title 7, GCA. § 6101. Tenure, Rejection or Retention in Office of a Justice or a Judge

(b) Each Judge of the Superior Court shall hold office for a term ending the 31st day of January following the first general election held after the expiration of seven (7) years since his or her appointment or election to office.

(1) No less than sixty (60) days prior to the holding of the general election next preceding the expiration of his or her term of office, any Judge may file in the office of the Election Commission a declaration of candidacy for election to succeed himself or herself. If a declaration is not filed, the vacancy resulting from the expiration of his or her term of office shall be filled by appointment pursuant to § 3108 of this Title.

(2) If such a declaration is filed, the name of such Judge shall be submitted at said next general election on a non-partisan ballot along with any other Judges seeking retention at the same election, without party designation, reading:

'Shall [Justice] [Judge] _____ (here insert the name of the Justice or Judge) or the [Supreme Court] [Superior Court] be retained in office? Yes No (Mark your preference).'

(3) If a majority of those voting on the question vote against retaining him or her in office, upon the expiration of his or her term of office, a vacancy shall exist which shall be filled by an initial appointment as provided in this Title; otherwise, said Judge shall, unless removed for cause, be retained in office for a term commencing upon the expiration of his or her existing term of office.

For the November 7, 1978 General Election, the Guam Election Commission prepared and presented the first Judicial Ballot to the electorate. To date, all Superior Court Judges retained include:

In 1992, the Twenty-First Guam Legislature enacted Public Law 21-147 establishing the Supreme Court of Guam. P.L. 21-147 was sponsored by Senator Pilar C. Lujan and named the "Frank G. Lujan Memorial Court Reorganization Act." The Supreme Court of Guam began operations with the passage of the Supreme Court of Guam Rules of Appellate Procedure Act, Public Law 23-34.

Governor Carl T.C. Gutierrez appointed Guam's first Supreme Court Justices to the Supreme Court of Guam on November 22, 1995. There were six members appointed, three full-time Justices and three part-time Justices. The Twenty-Third Guam Legislature confirmed all six Justices on April 19, 1996 and they were sworn in on April 21, 1996.

'Shall [Justice] [Judge] _____ (here insert the name of the Justice or Judge) or the [Supreme Court] [Superior Court] be retained in office? Yes No (Mark your preference).'

If a majority of those voting on the question vote against retaining him or her in office, upon the expiration of his or her term of office, a vacancy shall exist which shall be filled by an initial appointment as provided in this Title;

[10] * Appointed to fill the unexpired term of Judge Joaquin V.E. Manibusan

1.19 CONSOLIDATED COMMISSION ON UTILITIES, 2002-PRESENT

A Consolidated Commission on Utilities is established to exercise powers vested in it by the laws establishing the Guam Power Authority (GPA) and the Guam Waterworks Authority (GWA). The Commission is comprised of five (5) Commissioners elected at-large by the voters of Guam in a General Election. To be eligible to be a Commissioner, a person must be a registered voter of Guam and a minimum of twenty-five (25) years of age, and shall have been a resident of Guam for at least five (5) years prior to the date of the Commissioner's election. A person may not simultaneously serve as a Commissioner and an employee of the government of Guam.

Persons retired from the government of Guam may serve as Commissioners. At their first official meeting, the Commissioners shall elect from among the Commissioners a chairperson, who shall preside over meetings of the Commission. A majority of the Commissioners holding office shall constitute a quorum. The affirmative vote of the Commissioners holding office shall constitute the decision of the Commission. The Commission may adopt rules and regulations governing the conduct of its affairs.

The Office of Commissioner is a nonpartisan office. Candidates for the Office shall not identify themselves as members of any political party on Guam for the purpose of their campaign, nor shall they receive any endorsement or material support from any political party on Guam during the course of their campaigns. No Primary Election is required for candidates for this office. No nominating petitions shall be required of any candidate for this Office. Any qualified person applying to the Guam Election Commission, or its successor, for candidacy to this office shall be placed on the General Election ballot. In each election, the candidates receiving the highest numbers of votes shall be the elected Commissioners, without regard to the actual number of votes cast or received, and no runoff elections shall be required.

Each Commissioner is elected to serve a term of four (4) years, commencing on the First (1st) day of January following their election. The first election for members of the Commission occurred during the General Election in November, 2002. The three (3) candidates receiving the highest numbers of votes were elected to serve a four (4) year term, and the two (2) candidates receiving the next highest numbers of votes were elected to serve a two (2) year term.

On November 5, 2002, the First Consolidated Commission on Utilities was elected. Mr. Simon A. Sanchez II, Dr. Judith P. Guthertz, and Mr. Benigno M. Palomo received the highest number of votes, and were therefore elected to 4-year terms. Messrs. Frank S.N. Shimizu and Vincent Cristobal Camacho received the next highest numbers of votes, and were therefore elected to 2-year terms.

On November 2, 2004, the two expired seats of the Consolidated Commission on Utilities were placed on the General Election ballot. Mr. Thomas C. Ada and Ms. Gloria B. Nelson received the highest number of votes, and were therefore elected to 4-year terms. Dr. Judith P. Guthertz resigned her seat causing a permanent vacancy. As set forth in § 79105 of 12 GCA, Chapter 79, a permanent vacancy in the Office of a Commissioner shall result in a Special Election to fill that vacancy. Said vacancy may be filled through a Special Election called by I Liheslaturan Guåhan pursuant to § 79105, of 12 GCA, Chapter 79. Or, through a Special Election called by proclamation from the Governor of Guam as provided for in § 5104 of 3 GCA Chapter 5.

Since November 5, 2002, the Consolidated Commission on Utilities elected were as follows:

1.21 GUAM DECOLONIZATION REGISTRY

1.21.1 Title 3, GCA. § 21000. Legislative Findings and Intent.

In furtherance of Public Law Number 23-147, now codified as Chapter 21 of Title 1 of the Guam Code Annotated, wherein the Commission on Decolonization was established and given the mandate to conduct a plebiscite on the political status wishes of the people of Guam, I Liheslaturan Guåhan finds there is a need for a Registry, separate and apart from the Chamorro Registry authorized by Public Law Number 23-130, now codified as Chapter 20 of Title 3 of the Guam Code Annotated, which will specifically delineate the list of qualified voters for the political status plebiscite, and intends that this separate Registry not be one based on race.

It is the intent of I Liheslaturan Guåhan to permit the native inhabitants of Guam, as defined by the U.S. Congress 1950 Organic Act of Guam to exercise the inalienable right to self-determination of their political relationship with the United States of America.

I Liheslaturan Guåhan finds that the right has never been afforded the native inhabitants of Guam, its native inhabitants and land having themselves been overtaken by Spain, and then ceded by Spain to the United States of America during a time of war, without any consultation with the native inhabitants of Guam.

This inalienable right is founded upon the 1898 Treaty of Peace between the United States and Spain; Chapter XI of the United Nations Charter; the United States yearly reports to the United Nations on the Non Self-governing Territory of Guam; 1950 Organic Act of Guam; United Nations Resolution Number 1541 (XV); United Nations Resolution 1514 (XV); § 307 (a) of the United States Immigration and Nationality Act; and Part I, Article 1, Paragraphs 1 and 3 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights.

I Liheslaturan Guåhan notes that the 1950 Congress acknowledged its United Nations responsibilities:

In addition to its obligation under the Treaty of Paris, the United States has additional treaty obligations with respect to Guam as a non-self-governing Territory. 1.21.35 Registration of Native Inhabitants of Guam.

The steady increase in the number of Native Inhabitants of Guam on the Guam Decolonization Registry after the 2014 elections, as illustrated in Table 1.21.34, can be attributed to an increase in registration forms submitted by Volunteer Voter Registrars and Governor Eddie Calvo's push for Decolonization Registrars in each Government of Guam agency, as mandated in 3 GCA § 21008.1. Native Inhabitants of Guam were also given the opportunity to register at their respective polling sites during the 2012, 2014, and 2016 Primary and General Elections, which resulted in a significant increase in the number of entries in the Decolonization Registry.

In 2011, the 31st Guam Legislature made a special appropriation of $250,000 for Decolonization Registry efforts. The funds expended from this special appropriation were used to pay Decolonization Registrar stipends for the 2012, 2014, and 2016 Primary and General Elections and to procure supplies and materials pertinent to registration efforts. A balance of $9,019.52 remains.

Pursuant to the Decision and Order rendered by District Court of Guam Chief Judge Tydingco-Gatewood on March 8, 2017 in Civil Case No. 11-00035, Arnold Davis vs. Government of Guam, et al., the Guam Election Commission ceased all activities related to the registration of Native Inhabitants of Guam. A memorandum was sent to all Government of Guam agency heads to inform them of the Decision and Order and to request all registration forms and other supplies be submitted to the Guam Election Commission. Efforts have also been made to contact Decolonization Registrars personally to ensure all registration materials are returned. On April 7, 2017, the Attorney General of Guam filed a Defendant's Notice of Appeal in Civil Case No. 11-00035. The Guam Election Commission is committed to administer the Election laws as expressed in the Guam Code and interpreted by the Courts and will move forward accordingly.
