Man wanted in robbery captured in traffic stop

By Nick Delgado
nick@postguam.com

A 27-year-old man wanted by Guam police in connection with a robbery reported in Barrigada last month was caught after officers pulled him over during a traffic stop.

Vincent Peter Perez is charged with robbery, terrorizing, theft of property and outstanding bench warrant.

Guam Police Department spokesperson Sgt. Paul Tapao said police responded to a robbery complaint in Barrigada on Sept. 23.

Criminal investigators issued an all-points bulletin for the suspect after the suspect was identified in a photo lineup.

Authorities caught the suspect during a traffic stop on Thursday.

He was questioned at the GPD headquarters in Tiyan before being taken into the custody of the Department of Corrections.

Vincent Peter Perez

The Attorney General's Office was given the case for prosecution.
