Re: Designation of General Counsel as point of contact for legislative matters

Håfa Adai Speaker,

I have designated the Division of General Counsel within the Office of the Attorney General (OAG) to serve as our office's primary point of contact for legislative matters. It is my hope that having a primary point of contact for legislative matters will facilitate consistent and timely responses to inquiries from your office. Stephanie E. Mendiola is now the Deputy Attorney General for the division.

While I appreciate that you and or members of your staff may have established personal relationships with lawyers and other employees in our office, I request that emails or phone calls requesting official comment from the office, especially regarding proposed legislation or pending litigation, be addressed to me or Deputy Attorney General Mendiola. If the matter requires involvement from other personnel in my office, Deputy Attorney General Mendiola will coordinate communication between those personnel and your office.

If you are currently in communication with other AG personnel about pending legislative matters, please direct those communications to Deputy AG Mendiola so she may address those matters accordingly. She may be reached by email at smendiola@oagguam.org, and by phone at 475-3324, Ext 5335.

Sinseramente,

LEEVIN TAITANO CAMACHO
Attorney General
