From: GHURA Commissioner

Subject: Resignation

It is with a heavy heart that I tender my resignation, effectively immediately, as a Commissioner for Guam Housing and Urban Renewal Authority.

The most recent suit lodged against me by Ray Topasna blatantly places all my hopes of helping those most unfortunate in need of housing in a state of inertia and shatters me.

Actions "alledgedly" and unproven in a court of law deemed inappropriate by prior board members are of no consequence to my official capacity as a Commissioner years later.

Thank you for your confidence in appointing me to serve your Administration in the capacity of helping the cause of the homeless.

Joseph Artero-Cameron

Cc: Chairman, GHURA Board of Commissioners

Dear Governor,

Please accept this letter as notice of my resignation from the Guam Board of Medical Examiners effective immediately. Due to unforeseen family circumstances and other personal reasons, I will be unable to fully commit to my duty as a general board member and commissioner for Guam in the IMLCC. It was both my honor and pleasure to have worked alongside such a wonderful group of individuals. I will continue to effectively serve the people of Guam in various other capacities. Thank you for your understanding and consideration.

Kind regards,

Vincent S. Duenas, D.O.
