Hafa Adai Speaker,

I am in receipt of your Policy Advisor, Chrig Bhojwani's response on your behalf declining my request to hold the address at 7:00 p.m. on the 6th of January 2020. I expressed my apologies for the error in my letter dated December 2, 2019. I apologize that the error has caused an exorbitant inconvenience as seen in your staffer's response.

I am humbly seeking your reconsideration as 7:00 p.m. would maximize public attendance and participation and seek your reply as you have the authority to determine the hours of session.

Given the importance of this address as stated in your prior correspondence, it is unconscionable to deliberately exclude working people from being able to attend or watch the address.

If the requested 7:00 p.m. cannot be accommodated, I ask that you please offer an explanation as to why this request cannot be granted.

I seek to address federal issues to the people of Guam at the convenience of the people. According to our inquiries with legislative staff, there are no other legislative calendar conflicts to prevent a 7:00 p.m. accommodation time that would be best if the true intent is to include our people.

I look forward to hearing from you.

2019 DEC -4 AM 9:58

Sincerely,

Michael F.Q. San Nicolas
