From: Jesse Mendiola Blas
[redacted]

It is with a heavy heart that I step down from my position as the Mayor of the village of Yona effective January 30, 2020.

Yona has always been and will always be my home. My work in the village is built upon the foundation of love and respect that I have for Yona's landscape, its rich history and culture, and most importantly, its strong roots held together by the beautiful families and residents who also call Yona their home.

I am grateful for all who have continued to support me and all who have worked alongside me to strengthen our village.

I am also grateful to my staff for being focused and diligent in their duties, even in my absence.

I extend my deepest apologies to the people of Yona for the hurt and confusion caused by my current circumstances.

God's blessings over Yona always.

JESSE MENDIOLA BLAS
