RE: Appreciation for Assistance with the State of the Judiciary Address

Håfa Adai, Madame Speaker:

I would like to convey my deepest gratitude to you and your staff for accommodating the recent State of Judiciary Address at the Guam Congress Building. The attention paid to the safety and security of all attendees was commendable and most appreciated. The State of the Judiciary Address was a great success due to the collaborative efforts of both our branches.

I, along with the judicial officers, and members of our judiciary staff were warmly received by your legislative staff, and all our needs and requests were met with great attention and prompt response.

I look forward to future collaboration between the Judiciary of Guam and the Guam Legislature. Once again, un dångkolu na Si Yu'os Ma'åse.

Sincerely,

F. Philip Carbullido
Chief Justice
