Re: VETO of Substitute Bill No. 282-35 (LS) – An Act Making Appropriations for the Operations of the Executive, Legislative, and Judicial Branches of the Government of Guam for Fiscal Year Ending September 30, 2021, Making Other Appropriations, and Establishing Miscellaneous and Administrative Provisions

Dear Madame Speaker:

After thorough and careful consideration, I am forced to veto Bill 282-35 (LS). It is my hope that together, our branches of government can mutually agree on a budget that serves the People of Guam while still being realistic and responsible.

The long tradition of veto messages would normally require that I paint a picture of horrors all potentially caused by this spending plan.

But we do not live in traditional times and the normal political bickering between our branches serves no one. Guam is involved in a life or death struggle for the health of our people—that is the only fight that matters right now.

Instead, I will speak plainly about why I vetoed Bill 282-35 (LS): I did it because I believe we can do better—and we should try again. To that end, I am submitting an alternative proposal for consideration by your body. Pursuant to my authority under the Organic Act of Guam, I am calling for a special session of the Legislature, to commence at 10:00AM on Monday, September 14, 2020. I recognize that the statutory framework that governs the legislature's actions and sets conditions for passage of a bill without a public hearing instructs that you certify the existence of an emergency and waive the public hearing requirement set out in local law. However, the Organic Act imposes no such limitations on my authority to call a special session if it is in the public interest. In accordance with 48 U.S.C. §1423h, the purpose of this session shall be consideration of my appropriations proposal.

At the outset of this process, I recognized that the legislature would be forced to adopt revenues very different from those I submitted in my original proposal. Recognizing right as well as reality, I accepted revenue projections for the General Fund which were more than $50 million lower than my pre-public health emergency request. And in the final tally, the projections I propose and those adopted by the Legislature differ by a mere $7 million—an amount less than a fraction of 1% of all revenues available for appropriation.

Though I share the legislature's desire to project conservative revenues in an uncertain environment, these projections must be based on math, and not on fear. The Consolidated Revenue and Expenditure Report clearly indicates that actual withholding collections exceeded projected levels even after netting out collections resulting from federal unemployment assistance received. The same is true for corporate tax collections.

Moreover, while I acknowledge the difficult choices made by the budget measure placed on my desk, it is clear that the local appropriation to the Department of Public Health and Social Services is insufficient to maintain the level of services in demand during these trying times. Payroll for pandemic front line personnel who were in-process, or in active recruitment, prior to the budget's passage will be in jeopardy.

No matter how difficult the choices, I cannot understand why we would voluntarily forfeit millions of dollars in Medicaid money because we choose not to find matching funds.

Contrary to popular belief, the transfer authority granted to me in the measure as vetoed does little to address any major concerns because agency appropriations are so bare-bones throughout the executive branch there is nothing to transfer from one entity to another.

The same is true for the continuing/carryover provisions strewn throughout this measure that are generally not backed by current year cash. Where the cash for a carryover or continuing appropriation is present no problem may exist; where it does not, the amount is added to our deficit—straining our cash flow and amounting to nothing more than an empty promise.

Madame Speaker, the alternative measure I have transmitted herewith deals with our differences in clear ways. It increases revenues by a fraction of 1% allowing $7 million in revenue to be allocated in a way that restores operational shortfalls for critical agencies like the Departments of Public Health and Social Services, Corrections, Revenue and Taxation, and Administration. It will also allow us to maximize the use of millions in federal Medicaid dollars for the most vulnerable of our population. And it respects the needs of the Judiciary as a coequal branch of government by providing it an additional $1 million to avoid reduced work hours in third quarter of 2021. This was achieved because increased performance in the Manpower Development Fund allowed for decreased reliance on the General Fund.

To be clear, our differences center around three central items: a less than 1% difference in revenues; the allocation of the revenues on which we do agree, and a burdensome reliance on carryover and continuing appropriations to make up for those revenue differences.

None of us should be satisfied with the budget proposals before us. These fiscal plans are all driven by revenues which shortchange good people doing Herculean work for the betterment of our community. The damage caused by COVID-19 is real and that damage is being felt by too many people in too many ways. The reasonable and responsible adjustment to the revenues as I have proposed will have far reaching and positive cascading effects in closing the budgetary gap and preventing further deficit growth.

That said, I am certain that if the three central differences I have outlined above can be resolved, we will meet the most critical needs of our people through a realistic budget that I will most certainly sign.
