To PBS/KGTF Guam Chairman of the Board, Donovan Books,

It is my most unfortunate task that I am writing to you now: I must humbly request that I step down from my position as a PBS/KGTF board member. I have served Guam and the PBS/KGTF Guam team for eight years. During that time, I have seen many board members and general managers come and go, and I feel that now is the best time for me to take my leave. During the COVID crises, I was earnestly looking for a job to support myself. Thankfully, I was able to find temporary employment with the Guam Election Commission (GEC). Unfortunately, that puts my position as a board member in jeopardy due to the noted policies and by-laws of our station.

With that being said, it has been a pleasure working with you, our fellow board members, and our General Manager, Ina Carillo. This experience is one I hope to take with me wherever I go, and I hope we can stay in touch as well. Although, I won't be able to support the station and its expected growth from the inside, as I am accustomed to, I do hope to help in little ways from the sidelines.

Thank you for all your wisdom and kindness over the years. May PBS/KGTF Guam continue to grow and prosper to become a strong staple to the island, just like most of us remember it to be. Biba PBS/KGTF Guam and God bless you all.

Sincerely,

Athena C.G. Meno
