Re: Testimony in Support of Marilyn R. Borja's Confirmation

Håfa Adai Chairman Senator Joe San Agustin and Members of the Committee,

I offer this strong letter of support for the confirmation of Marilyn R. Borja to serve a second term on the Guam Ethics Commission. I have the deepest personal and professional respect for Commissioner Borja. She is an intelligent, committed, passionate, and accomplished individual. In addition to her distinguished professional career, Commissioner Borja has gone above and beyond in service of our community. She currently serves as one of six (6) inaugural members named and confirmed to the Guam Ethics Commission.

Shortly after starting her service in 2019, Commissioner Borja was elected among her peers to lead the Commission as its Vice-Chairwoman. In her role, she equally led and accomplished developing the mission of the Commission, secure its first appropriations in the government of Guam 2021 budget, served in the search committee for the Commission's first Executive Director as well as a panel member for the support staff search. Commissioner Borja further supported the formulation of the Commission's public policy initiatives which lead to the enactment of two new public laws. These include mandating ethics training for all employees of the government of Guam (P.L. 36-25) and reaffirming the Guam Ethics Commission as an independent and autonomous agency within the government of Guam (P.L. 36-28).

The Commission expects to begin adjudicating ethics related complaints quickly upon obtaining the services of a legal counsel. Commissioner Borja's background and voice will support a balanced and fair deliberation of all complaints heard by the Commission. I respectfully ask for the legislature's confirmation of her re-appointment to the Commission.

Si Yu'os Ma'ase!

I'd like to knowledge my colleagues that have joined me today, we have Senator Telo Taitague. I think that's about it so that's great. And we will now begin with I'd like to acknowledge Ms. Marilyn Borja, if you can go ahead and give your testimony tonight on your appointment all right Marilyn.

Ms. Marilyn R. Borja, Guam Ethics Commission: Thank you so much Senator, thank you honorable Joe San Augustin, Chairman of the Committee on Government Operations, Appropriations, and Housing. Members of the committee, I'll honor both senators and stakeholders for taking the time to hear my testimony and for your consideration of my extended service of four more years to the Guam Ethics Commission. At the start of the newly resurrected Guam Ethics Commission in 2019, I was elected to serve as vice chair alongside Chair Shannon Murphy and the entire commission went straight to work on building the framework to build the long-awaited ethics commission as you can imagine, there was much to be done with working towards a goal without a budget. A team or even a space to work in created its own challenges but did not discourage us. Right when we thought we were making progress, next thing you know we were all facing COVID-19 and the challenges this pandemic brought to us. All as you can see being on this zoom platform my first confirmation hearing was in person a little over two years later. I'm happy to report the following milestones, just a few actually of the following milestones and accomplishments the commission has achieved in 2020, we received our first legislative appropriation, we also successfully established the executive director position and initiated the search in 2021. We hired the first executive director who's joining me on this call. Jesse Quenga, we hired two support staff, two public laws were enacted Public Law 36-25 and 36-28.

We opened the Guam Ethics Commission office at the GCIC building. We conducted the first Ethics and government program workshop and we collected the first ethics training compliance report from all Government of Guam entities. We also have many ongoing projects as well as you can see, I'm extremely proud to have worked alongside passionate and driven individuals for the duration of my initial term which was set initially for two years although majority of this time was spent virtually and here, we are today still virtual. It would be my pleasure and honor to be approved to serve for an additional term in the height of this pandemic. The Ethics Commission has made phenomenal progress and I want nothing more than to see the goals we set back in 2019 to come to fruition and to deliver the promise we made to the people of Guam, to revive the Guam Ethics Commission and create a sustainable organization. They can count on to set and regulate accountability for the Government of Guam which includes the commission itself. Chairman San Augustin, thank you and the members of the committee for your consideration and I humbly seek your support for my extension.

Chairman Joe S. San Agustin: Thank you Ms. Borja, you have my support, you guys are doing what you need, what you were tasked to do and we have Mr. Quenga here, Jess would you like to testify on the support of Ms. Borja before I open the floor for anybody else?

Jesse Quenga, CM, Executive Director, Guam Ethics Commission: Yes, thank you senator San Agustin for the opportunity. I do express my strong support for the appointee and I hope that the legislature will grant her confirmation to a second term. I will submit a hand written testimony in support of this and will provide that to the committee to include in the report so I'll be around and should there be any questions from yourself or any other senators.

Chairman Joe S. San Agustin: All right thank you Mr. Quenga, I'd like to also recognize my colleagues that have also joined us, Senator Brown, good evening, and open out the floor and all to my colleagues if they have any questions for Ms. Borja. Senator Telo, do you have any questions for Ms. Borja.

Senator Telo T. Taitague: I have no questions, I'm confident that she's going to do a good job and I wish you the very best and please, my door is always open if you need any assistance at all thank you so much, Mr. Chair, good luck to you.

Chairman Joe S. San Agustin: All right and thank you, Senator Brown, do you have any questions, you might want to oppose to the Ethics nominee, Ms Borja?

Senator Joanne M. Brown: Sorry I wasn't there for her statements but I do want to ask, she may have related but I do want to ask in her service on the Ethics board, what does she think makes her most qualified to serve in this capacity?

Ms. Marilyn R. Borja, Guam Ethics Commission: I can freely answer now senator, okay I think a different perspective was definitely the group that we have on the commission right now I think comes from various walks of life and in my day job I guess if you will and then also my personal life is just a wife and a mother. I think that you know bringing different perspectives, but it also adds to the synergies of the group whether we come from corporate or just very experienced people that I look up to as well as different fields that we have so as far as ethics just overall. I think is a big part of me who I am but also in the job that I also hold for my regular day job. I'm not to go into those details but I run a unit at a local telecommunication company so I think just ethics and overall accountability is a big part of my job but what I look most forward to and I think what the value I do bring is just I am but also in the job that I also hold for my regular day job. I'm not to go into those details but I run a unit at a local telecommunication company so I think just ethics and overall accountability is a big part of my job but what I look most forward to and I think what the value I do bring is just I am a local I'm you know I'm a I'm a local not just an island resident but I'm you know lived here and born here all my life and this is my home so I think that as that as well in addition to just my career the various parts of my career bringing that as well. I think is probably my best value that I can bring and I think it's more though of an opportunity for me to be invested in something that I've not been I've never been a Government of Guam employee. Obviously have friends I live in this community so I think what was exciting for me was as you can imagine the stereotype that we hear so often in just our daily life about you know the Government of Guam and I feel like you know, we deserve more than that and I want to be part of that and when my term came up to, I felt like wow COVID robbed us of like a year and a half and right when we're making this momentum, my term is up so, I'm happy to you know to continue the work and Jesse being here I think is a testament to it being brought to life.

Senator Joanne M. Brown: i wanted to ask you a question because you know certainly in my experience at least in the legislature a lot of ethics complaints are very political in nature and sometimes very much attend intended to harm you know normally the elected official some cases they may be valid number of other cases they're not but you know when your name is publicized, I mean people know who you are they might not know who Ms. Borja is but I'm sure they know who you know Senator San Augustin, Senator Telo and Senator Brown probably a little more just because of our respective capacities. And sometimes you know there are people in our community that do bow down to political pressure sometimes there's an agenda there behind what may actually be a legitimate wrongdoing that someone has committed by all means if that's the case and certainly people should be held responsible for that but what is your view on that? Because it's not uncommon I don't know you know certainly you're working in the private sector that has its own political dynamics it's different but it nevertheless exists in government you know gosh who gets hired where they get hired what favor happens here or there it's not that uncommon, I'd like to think it's an exception but after 33 years in the car most of that time in the Government of Guam it's almost the standard so I just wanted to ask you in terms of your own personal ethics, I mean how would you address that if you were ever approached because there are different agendas out there i mean a lot of it has to do with power a lot of has to do with control a lot of it has to do to do with control a lot of it has to do with money and who has access to it, so I just wanted to get your personal thoughts if you were approached to that to try to influence your decision whatever that decision may be on an issue or something that comes before you a case that comes before you, how would you deal with that?

Ms. Marilyn R. Borja, Guam Ethics Commission: I think I would approach it the same way I do in my job, in my daily job or even just here in my home. I think or no I don't think I know I think the fact that I've not ever been politically involved to my point earlier about not really working ever in the Government or being involved even in any political, I've not been involved in any kind of police any political parties or fundraisers or anything like that so I think that makes that quite easy for me because then I can just look at things straight forward for what they are you know it's black and white and I think that part again thanks to my job and the work I've been doing for gosh however long I've been working just makes it very easy to look at it like that and allow me a very unbiased you know perspective and view and at the end of the day it's what we feel is right and it's all predicated on these you know policies sops that we put in and in a lot of ways that makes it very easy to do my job because if we implement you know policies and procedures for things and that's exactly what our focus is on, I think it'll be clear for not just myself but even the people that bring their complaints and that confidence they have and I think that's what's been key for us is working towards establishing what are those process flows and what can you expect so I think it's about educating people who may have complaints or feel like there's you know monkey business going on. I think that and has been and Jesse here is a big part of that in educating the people of Guam in okay what is the again the framework and that's what we're working on our next step is education because I think once those two things are out then it makes all of our jobs so much easier to just be able to steer things towards the objective of a fair and complete process to a resolution on a complaint that's put forward me personally I think what's made it easy again is you know I work in a service providing industry and at the end of the day, your interests I understand because of COVID not really being able to serve a legitimate term so appreciate your interest in coming back and wanting to commission thank you so much and thank you Mr. Chairman for the opportunity to be able to ask Ms. Borja some questions thank you.

Chairman Joe S. San Agustin: Thank you Senator Brown and Ms. Borja, do you have anything you like to make a closing statement on your confirmation hearing?

Ms. Marilyn R. Borja, Guam Ethics Commission: No just that I think I'm just humbled and honored to be seen and viewed as qualified to do this again. I'm just a simple born and raised here all my life, lived here and I think I'm invested just as anyone else is here and very humble to think that I can bring value and I certainly won't take that for granted or take my job lightly so, I'm committed to this as you all are in your public service so thank you very much for allowing me, just a little time.

Chairman Joe S. San Agustin: All right and thank you Ms. Borja and guys move to the GCIC. I think you guys scared the Guam Election Commission out of there when they found out Ethics Commissions in that building but anyway you all have a nice time and there's no one else to testify or to speak on this confirmation hearing and the committee will continue to receive testimony for the next few days for any additional testimony that may be submitted and you may and if you do want to if anyone will like submit a testimony please submit it to the mail room of the Guam legislature or through email senatorjoessanagustin@gmail.com again I want to thank everyone for attending this virtual public hearing and for providing feedback and suggestions. Thank you, Ms. Borja and Jesse. This virtual public hearing is adjourned for Ms. Borja the time now is 6:17 P.M. this hearing is a adjourned thank you.

This Virtual Public Hearing was adjourned at 6:17 P.M.
