itors to perform the three lifts in his division but ended up taking first place in 120 kilograms after lifting a total of 775 kilograms — 295 kilograms squatted, 180 kilograms bench pressed and 300 kilograms deadlifted.

Like Uribe, Torres also had a great time in the event.

"It was really just fun lifting with other people I've never met before and of course with my best friend, Chris Pascua," Torres said. "It was just a blast, to be honest."

Torres said that training wasn't all he attributed his win, but also his strength in his faith.

"Honestly, I couldn't do it without my lord and savior Jesus Christ. All the glory to God."

Pascua ended up finishing behind Torres in second place in the division, followed by Ethan Kyle Vicente in third.

Triton-KFC hoops returns Tuesday

Pacific Daily News

The University of Guam Triton-KFC Men's Basketball League returns for its fall of 2022 season Tuesday night at the UOG Calvo Field House with a doubleheader.

Six teams will go head-to-head in the league, including the defending champions, the MVP Stars, according to a release from UOG's Triton Athletics. Other teams set to play are the KFC Bombers, UOG Tritons, Team OG, the Four Stars and MicroFriends.

"This is considered the best basketball league on the island and we have a waiting list every year of teams who want to play in the league," Doug Palmer, UOG athletic director said in the release.

The KFC Bombers from Andersen Air Force Base have won two championships in the league, but the MVP All-Stars won the most recent championship in spring 2022 with the Bombers finishing runner-up, according to the release.

"Everyone works to beat the Bombers and MVP; they set the standard for the league and feature some of the best players on the island," Palmer said in the release.

Games will follow FIBA rules, with four 10-minute quarters, the clock stopping on all whistles and a 24-second shot clock, according to the release.

The league's season begins with the KFC Bombers facing the MicroFriends at 6:30 p.m., followed by the Tritons taking on Team OG, according to the release. The Tritons-Team OG game will be broadcast on PBS Guam.

The PBS games will feature play-by-play commentary by Fred Peters, the coach at St. John's School, and Argie Flores, a former player in the league who will provide color, according to the release.

The league championship is set for Dec. 5.

a groove to win, needing just one more set to head to the championship.

In the fourth set, St. John's middle blockers Knessa Davis and senior Wendy Zheng came alive. Davis put a block on most hits at the net and Zheng connected on medium quick sets from Cyerra Lauron in the middle. Zheng had some epic battles with the Cougars' Gabi Mata and Natasha Kelly at the net and all got their share of points in exciting fashion, but the Cougars came out on top.

In the fifth and deciding set, the teams battled tooth and nail but neither could break away. At 13-13, Hinengi San Nicolas hit a back-row shot after a long rally to give her team game point. Two service errors only heightened the drama.

In the end, the winner was a back-row shot by Genice Torres who speed-set the ball over the net. Davis got a touch on it, but the ball dropped for the match.

Mata said the championship match against Notre Dame won't be easy.

"Everything is gonna be a fight, just like this game," she said. "We're just gonna have to do our best, and just leave it all on the court."

Royals win

The Notre Dame High Royals breezed by the Guam High Panthers in straight sets at the Notre Dame gym.

The Royals won 25-9, 25-20, 25-12, with Faith Piper and Cela Langas giving the Panthers powerful shots through the night.

"It feels good, just knowing that the girls worked hard for this," said Royals assistant coach Noel Sablan. "We practice for it. They just got to execute it in the final game."

Piper said she was excited to advance to the championship game.

"The whole team is thrilled we won," Piper said.

The Panthers crept to within five during the second set, but quick defense and teamwork from Senaiyath Bell, Melissa Blas and Mercedes Cruz kept the Royals in the lead.

Sablan said that the team will be practicing its defense.

"It's what we've been doing since the beginning, ... our defense, serve-receive, executing the ball for the third contact, getting the points in and never letting the ball hit the ground," he said.

For Piper and the rest of the Royals, it's all about reviewing previous games and improving themselves.

Sablan did have one key piece of advice for the girls.

"Stay humble and fight until the last whistle has been blown on championship day."

The team will face the Academy of Our Lady of Guam Cougars at 7 p.m. Friday at the University of Guam Calvo Field House for the title.
