Sabalenka stuns Swiatek in WTA Finals

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) — Aryna Sabalenka stood stoically ever so briefly, before crouching for an emphatic fist pump to go with a scream.

The seventh-ranked woman in the eight-player WTA Finals couldn't hide the emotion, because she knew exactly what she had done.

Sabalenka ended world No. 1 Iga Swiatek's 15-match winning streak against top-10 opponents, taking a 6-2, 2-6, 6-1 victory in the semifinals of the season-ending event Sunday night.

The stunner puts Sabalenka in final Monday night against No. 6 Caroline Garcia, who streamrolled Maria Sakkari 6-3, 6-2 and can become just the second Frenchwoman to win WTA Finals after Amelie Mauresmo in 2005.

Swiatek, the French Open and U.S. Open champion and runaway leader with eight tour victories, cruised through three round-robin victories, losing just 13 games to give her the longest winning run against top-10 opponents since Steffi Graf won 17 straight in 1987.

AP PHOTO

Aryna Sabalenka, of Belarus, reacts to winning the second set and match against Iga Swiatek, of Poland, in the singles semifinals of the WTA Finals tennis tournament in Fort Worth, Texas, Nov. 6, 2022.

Just like that, it was over when the 21-year-old from Poland lost the last five games against a player she had beaten in all four meetings this season.

Sabalenka was No. 1 when she beat Swiatek in round-robin play at last year's WTA Finals, but neither player made the semifinals.

With that much out of the way for both, Sabalenka showed how comfortable she was on the temporary indoor hard court at Dickies Arena. Nine of her 10 career victories have come on hard courts.

"I just want to make sure that every time she plays against me, she knows that she really has to work hard to get a win," said Sabalenka, whose fourth loss this year to Swiatek was a three-setter in the U.S. Open semifinals.

JFK held a slim 20-17 lead headed into the match and locked up the team win when it tied the doubles match at 6-6.

Sgambelluri and Flores wound up winning 8-7 (9-7 in the tiebreaker) but JFK had already secured the team win.

JFK has the boys wins over George Washington High School and Okkodo High School.

"It's been up and down, really, but the doubles pairs are starting to gel more, which I like," said JFK coach Joshua Cepeda.

"I think what also helps everyone do well is the guys outside the fence, cheering them on, the support they are hearing from their own teammates and classmates. I told them not to focus on the score, worry about the points happening now. I don't want them to have to do adding in their head while they're playing."

In the girls division, the Angels swept the Islanders. Mina Noble defeated Wyllie Endozo 8-2, Jasmine Lau defeated Keisha Ayson 8-1, Charlotte Oh and Sarah Miyagi defeated Melanie Rosario and Iris Calaunan 8-0, and Princess Baradi and Joonseo Youn defeated Jhen Fabella and Eliana Cruz 8-2.
