Relative to recognizing Manuel Chargualaf Meno for his service and contributions to the parish community of the San Isidro Catholic Church in Malojoj, and the village of Inaláhan; and congratulating him on being selected as one of the 2023 Grand Marshalls of this year's Golden Jubilee Fiestan San Isidro.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COMMITTEE ON RULES I MINA'TRENTAI SIETTE NA LIHESLATURAN GUÁHAN:

WHEREAS, Manuel Chargualaf Meno, known to many as Manuet or Manny, is a humble, generous, and compassionate man who was born in the village of Inaláhan. He is the son of the late †Regino and Cornelia Chargualaf Meno, and the youngest of ten (10) children: Anna, Jesus, Maria, Margarita, Asuncion, Jose, Juan, Joaquin, Remedio, and Pedro; and

WHEREAS, in 1962, Manuel married Carmen Naputi Gumataotao at St. Joseph Catholic Church in Inaláhan; and in 1973, the family settled in Malojoj where they reside to this day. Together, Manuel and Carmen have been blessed with sixty (60) years of marriage, and they have four (4) children: Arleen, Therese, Manuel Jr. Arthur, and reared son David; and have also been blessed with fifteen (15) grandchildren and twenty (20) great-grandchildren; and

WHEREAS, Manuel dedicated his lifetime in service to our community; and over the years, he performed a myriad of duties and fulfilled many leadership roles to include civil service, faith-based, political, and cultural roles; and

WHEREAS, after graduating from George Washington High School in 1957, Manuel began his professional career employed under the U.S. Navy Public Works Center (U.S. Civil Service). During his tenure, Manuel received numerous certificates of completion, appointments, and awards – and his notable awards include multiple Superior Performance awards in 1985, 1989, 1990, and 1993. On January 17, 1995, after thirty-seven (37) years of service to Guam, Manuel retired as an Equipment Specialist General; and

WHEREAS, apart from Manuel's civil service to Guam, he also remained committed to his village and parish community. A few of his notable contributions include his service as Vice President of the San Isidro Parish Council in 1988 and 1989, as well as the Vice President of the Malojoj-Inaláhan Cemetery Council; and Manuel's determination to serve his community prompted him to participate in the mayoral race in 1996; and

WHEREAS, Manuel believes deeply in the spirit of ina'fa' maolek. This is why he spent many years supporting events such as the Christmas parades, village clean-ups, and the Malojoj basketball/tennis court renovations. Manuel is often credited for his humorous spirit, independent thinking, and exceptional work ethic. Although Manuel was a quiet spirited man, he is often the person that everyone turns to for advice or support; and his willingness to show compassion and share love with others is a testament that his family will carry with them throughout their lifetime; and

WHEREAS, Manuel credits his long life to staying active doing activities like shrimping, farming, net and spear fishing, and deer hunting during open season. Manuel once said, "Back then in the olden days if you leave the house, you should always come back with something in hand. Because the journey is long, you should make every trip worth it." For his outstanding contributions and service to his parish community of San Isidro Catholic Church, Malojoj-Inaláhan, Manuel was selected to serve as one of this year's 2023 Grand Marshalls in celebration of the Golden Jubilee Fiestan San Isidro; now therefore, be it
