BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COMMITTEE ON RULES I MINA'TRENTAI SIETTE NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN:

WHEREAS, Ana Q. Meno, who is now eighty-seven (87) years old, was named in honor of both the patron saint, Santa Ana, and her mother. She is the fifteenth (15th) child of Ana and Francisco Quenga and is the only surviving sister of her seventeen (17) siblings; and she is affectionally called "Mana" by her beloved sixteen (16) grandchildren and thirty-three (33) great grandchildren, and fondly known as "Auntie Nai" by her nieces and nephews; to her seven (7) children and spouses, Peter Jr. & Lisa Meno, Ruth & Eddie Taimanglo, Mike & Jane Meno, Lydia & Victor Jesus, Patricia & Roy Taitague, Cecilia & Ray Taimanglo, and Ricky & Paul Jordan, she is called "Momma"; and to her George Washington High School Graduating Class of 1952, she is simply known as "Ann"; and

WHEREAS, "Asagua" (my love or my wife) is who she was to retired Air Force Tech Sergeant Pedro Chargualaf Meno, whom she married in 1956 at the Agaña Heights Church. Pedro was the man Ana's father entrusted his daughter to, and was the man who joined the military to prove to Ana's dad that he could provide for his wife. He was the man she was blessed to celebrate her Golden Anniversary with, the man she shared seven (7) children with, and the man she vowed to be with again after his passing in 2019; and

WHEREAS, the couple left the island, and upon returning home to Guam twenty (20) plus years later, Ana and her husband Pedro were ready to plant their roots permanently and had their home built in Malojloj in 1976; and soon after, in 1978, Ana chose to become a Christian Mother. She always looked forward to the Christian Mothers' devotion of hosting the San Isidro Fiesta visiting dignitaries, hosting Our Lady of Fatima novenas, or devoting time to the yearly procession for Santa Marian Kamalen. Ana always enjoyed her time serving with the village ladies on church cleaning days, and she was also proud to serve a Sunday Mass breakfast once a year. The COVID-19 pandemic may have kept her away from the church, as well as having some health issues; but after forty-four (44) years as a Christian Mother, she continues to serve the Lord and assist the San Isidro Catholic Church and the Christian Mothers when she can; and

WHEREAS, trying to live her life to its fullest was not always about taking care of her responsibilities, as Ana's hobbies included playing softball on the Inalåhan Woman's softball team, and she loved to exercise as well. If she could not jazzercise with Richard Simmons on television, then she went to the N.A.S. gym in Hagåtña, or gyms in Talo'fo'fo' or Yona and even at one time in Malojloj. She also loved camping out at the beach or swimming with her family at the Inalåhan Pool; and

WHEREAS, for Ana, receiving one of this year's Fiesta and Golden Jubilee Grand Marshall award that recognizes her service and devotion to the San Isidro Parish, and the community of Malojloj and municipality of Inarajan is an honor. Ana will be forever grateful for the community that gave her so much in return and hopes that the generations to come will help to preserve this way of life through their service and devotion for San Isidro and the community of Malojloj; and

WHEREAS, for her outstanding contributions and service to the parish community of San Isidro Catholic Church, Malojloj-Inalåhan, Ana was selected to serve as one of this year's 2023 Grand Marshalls in the celebration of the Golden Jubilee Fiestan San Isidro; now therefore, be it
