Relative to recognizing M. Roy Wilson, M.D., M.S. for his outstanding achievements, transformative leadership, and unwavering dedication to advancing healthcare, education, and research, and commending him for his continued mentorship to doctors around the world; and expressing a warm Håfa Adai and welcome to him on his visit to Guam.

BE IT RESOLVED BY I MINA'TRENTAI SIETTE NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN:

WHEREAS, Dr. M. Roy Wilson is a distinguished educator, ophthalmologist, and glaucoma specialist, who was born on November 28, 1953, in Yokohama, Japan; and throughout his life, he has since demonstrated exemplary leadership, commitment, and contributions in the fields of medicine, academia, and public service; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Wilson earned his B.S. degree in Biology from Allegheny College in 1976; his M.D. degree from Harvard Medical School in 1980; his M.S. degree in Epidemiology from the University of California, Los Angeles in 1990; and he completed his residency in ophthalmology and fellowship in glaucoma at the Massachusetts Eye & Ear Infirmary in Boston, Massachusetts; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Wilson's illustrious career includes significant milestones, most recently serving as the Twelfth (12th) President of Wayne State University from 2012 to 2023. Under his leadership, extramural research funding awards doubled, advancing the University's academic reputation; graduation rates increased, especially among first-generation, low income and minority students; and Dr. Wilson fostered a campus culture committed to academic diversity and community engagement with the establishment of the Office of Multicultural Student Engagement; and

WHEREAS, prior to his retirement after serving as the President of Wayne State University in Detroit, Dr. Wilson held leadership roles at the Charles R. Drew University of Medicine and Science in Los Angeles, California; the University of California, Los Angeles; Creighton University; Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center; and the University of Colorado in Denver, Colorado; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Wilson's contributions extend beyond institutional leadership, with his appointment to serve as Deputy Director of the National Institute of Minority Health and Health Disparities (NIMHD) in 2011, marking a significant role in addressing health disparities and promoting inclusivity in medical research; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Wilson's professional affiliations include prestigious memberships in organizations such as the American Ophthalmological Society, the Glaucoma Research Society, the Society of Medical Administrators, and the National Academy of Medicine, underscoring his recognition and influence within his field; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Wilson has served on various FDA Advisory Committees; and he has played crucial roles in clinical trials, and contributed to the development of policies that shape the landscape of medical research and healthcare in the United States; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Wilson's mentorship has inspired the professional careers of many doctors around the world, including the island of Guam; and his influence can be seen through the care provided by the doctors at the Island Eye Center in Tamuning Guam; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Wilson's personal life reflects his commitment to his family as he is married to Jacqueline Wilson, with whom he experiences the joy of parenthood with his two (2) adult children, Presley Wilson and Travis Yoshio Wilson. Dr. Wilson's life is further detailed in his memoir, "The Plum Tree Blossoms Even in Winter," which had received awards from the 2023 Independent Publisher Book Award and the 2023 Midwest Book Awards; and Dr. Wilson is an avid cyclist who will be participating in the annual Tour of Guam bike race on December 10, 2023; now therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that I Mina'trentai Siette Na Liheslaturan Guåhan does hereby, on behalf of the people of Guam, recognize M. Roy Wilson, M.D., M.S. for his outstanding achievements, transformative leadership, and unwavering dedication to advancing healthcare, education, and research, and commend him for his continued mentorship to doctors around the world; and express a warm Håfa Adai and welcome to him on his visit to Guam; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Speaker certify, and the Legislative Secretary attest to, the adoption hereof, and that copies of the same be thereafter transmitted to M. Roy Wilson, M.D., M.S.; and to the Honorable Lourdes A. Leon Guerrero, I Maga'hågan Guåhan.

DULY AND REGULARLY ADOPTED BY I MINA'TRENTAI SIETTE NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN ON THE 30TH DAY OF NOVEMBER 2023.
