Relative to recognizing Mildred "Millie" Rivera Camacho on her retirement after fifty-three (53) years of outstanding service with the U.S. Department of Defense; and commending her for her dedication to Guam and the United States Navy.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COMMITTEE ON RULES I MINA TRENTAI SIETTE NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN:

WHEREAS, it is the sense of I Liheslaturan Guåhan to recognize the life and accomplishments of those distinguished citizens of this great island who have devoted themselves to faithfully serving the best interests of our community and the needs of our people; and

WHEREAS, one such distinguished citizen is Mildred "Millie" Rivera Camacho who began her distinguished civil service career in 1971, after her sister encouraged her to take the civil service entrance exam; and she began working as a Clerk Typist for the Officer in Charge of Construction Guam, and over the next fifty-plus (50+) years, she rose to become a Financial Management Analyst for the Naval Facilities Engineering Systems Command (NAVFAC) Marianas; and

WHEREAS, Millie's passion for finance began during her college years, where she excelled in her accounting and bookkeeping classes in San Diego, California; and upon her return to Guam, she was able to transition her academic success into a long and fulfilling career in financial management, serving in various roles at Andersen Air Force Base, the Naval Base Guam Public Works Center, and NAVFAC Marianas; and

WHEREAS, Millie's dedication to her craft, coupled with her love for working with numbers, has garnered the respect and admiration of her colleagues and superiors. In August 2021, she celebrated her fiftieth (50th) year of civil service, where she was honored with a golden service pin and a length of service award presented by NAVFAC Marianas Commanding Officer Captain Tim Liberatore; and

WHEREAS, in March of 2024, Millie was further recognized with the prestigious "Peggy D. Craig Lifetime Service" Award, which is presented annually to individuals who personify a career of service, selflessness, and dedication to NAVFAC and its mission. NAVFAC Marianas Commander Captain Troy Brown, who nominated Millie for the award, commended her for her exemplary lifetime of service, embodying the highest standards of dedication and commitment to the U.S. Department of Defense; and

WHEREAS, in addition to her remarkable career with the U.S. Department of Defense, Millie has also served as a dedicated board member for the Community First Federal Credit Union, where her extensive financial expertise has significantly contributed to the success and growth of the institution. As a board member, she played a role in overseeing the financial health and strategic direction of the credit union, ensuring its services and operations met the needs of the island's community. Her commitment to responsible governance, financial integrity, and service to members has helped strengthen the financial stability and well-being of countless families on Guam, enhancing their access to affordable and trusted banking services; and her dedication to promoting financial literacy and inclusion on the island has earned her deep respect from her peers and the wider community; and

WHEREAS, throughout her career, Millie has been known for her work ethic, her positive attitude, and her ability to inspire and mentor others. Her daily commitment to excellence, coupled with her early morning workout routine and strong faith, has kept her physically and mentally strong, enabling her to excel in both her personal and professional life; and

WHEREAS, Millie is also an active member of her church, where her trust in her faith has helped her through both the challenges and triumphs of her career. She believes that her success is a result of her strong spiritual foundation, and she credits her ability to navigate the rocky waters of life to her unwavering trust in the Lord; and

WHEREAS, Millie's dedication to public service is also reflected in her family, with one of her daughters, Karianne, following in her footsteps as a real estate officer with NAVFAC Marianas. Her ability to balance her demanding career with her commitment to family has earned her the love and admiration of her husband Ricardo, her five (5) children, six (6) grandchildren, and five (5) great-grandchildren, all of whom have supported her throughout her remarkable career; now therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Committee on Rules of I Mina Trentai Siette Na Liheslaturan Guåhan does hereby, on behalf of I Liheslaturan Guåhan and the people of Guam, recognize Mildred "Millie" Rivera Camacho on her retirement after fifty-three (53) years of outstanding service with the U.S. Department of Defense; and commend her for her dedication to Guam and the United States Navy; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Speaker and the Chairperson of the Committee on Rules certify, and the Legislative Secretary attest to, the adoption hereof, and that copies of the same be thereafter transmitted to Mildred Rivera Camacho; and to the Honorable Lourdes A. Leon Guerrero, I Maga'hågan Guåhan.

DULY AND REGULARLY ADOPTED BY THE COMMITTEE ON RULES OF I MINA TRENTAI SIETTE NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN ON THE 17TH DAY OF OCTOBER 2024.
