Re: BILL NO. 210-36 (COR) – "AN ACT RELATIVE TO APPROVING THE PLANS FOR THE GUAM PACIFIC ISLAND GOLD STAR FAMILIES' MEMORIAL MONUMENT"

Dear Madame Speaker,

Sacrifice is something well-known in military families. Very often, our military families spend extended periods of time apart while their servicemembers train, deploy, and fight and win our nation's wars. Gold Star Families have given the ultimate sacrifice: the lost life of a loved one in defense of our country. The planned monument that is approved today will never match the magnitude of their sacrifice, but it will serve as a reminder for all of us that some of us have carried a much heavier burden in the cause of freedom than others. Bill No. 210-36, now known as Public Law No. 36-63, and it is my hope that when completed, the Gold Star Families Monument will serve as a solemn tribute to the dignity and worth of service to our nation.

Senseremente,

LOURDES A. LEON GUERRERO
Maga'hågan Guåhan
Governor of Guam
